Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke, divorced wife of Brodie L. Duke, was held for the Grand Jury in Chicago, on a charge of forgery; she was unable to give bail and was sent to jail——"Packey" McFarland knocked out "Jimmy" Britt in the sixth round at San Francisco——The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $43,285,675 more than the requirements of the 25 per cent, reserve rule. This is an increase of $2,575,375 as compared with last week——In the House of Representatives the time was spent in a discussion of the Naval appropriation bill; Mr. Kitchin of North Carolina opposed the idea of four battleships ——Leo C. Thurman, who was hanged in Norfolk, Va., Friday, left a confession in which he stated that he murdered Walter P. Dolsen "in cold blood," his sole purpose being robbery ——Congressman Lilley of Connecticut wants several of the navy yards "investigated," with a view of their abandonment——Three orange packers at Lake Harney, Fla., were shot to death by unknown parties——The New York State Republican convention instructed its delegates to the National convention to vote for the nomination of Governor Hughes——Both New York and Philadelphia are visited by heavy wind storms that do much damage; in each city one is killed——The Supreme Court has ousted the Standard Oil Company from doing business in Tennessee——Another outbreak is feared at Pensacola, Fla., and troops may be ordered out——Indictments have been found against the members of the Naval Stores Trust by the Federal grand jury at Savannah, Ga., and four of the defendants were arrested——New York markets: Spot cotton closed quiet, middling uplands 10.25, middling gulf 10.50, sales none; money on call nominal; time loans easy; flour quiet and unsettled; wheat spot, No. 2 red, 99 3-4 elevator; corn, spot firm, No. 2, 77 elevator; oats, mixed 55; rosin, steady; turpentine, steady 52.

The straw ballot seems to be more popular than the straw hat.

Let's stop calling Emma Goldman the "Anarchist Queen." There's nothing queenly about her.

The Southport Herald announces editorially that it favors the nomination of Ashley Horne for Governor.

A leak in the Navy Department seems to be more serious even than a leak in one of the battleships would be.

Tillman would not have said "Bryan can beat Taft," if he did not believe it, but after all, this is not saying so very much for the gentleman from the West.

It's all right for Mrs. George Gould to disclose the fact that Mme. Gould, her sister, is more than 21 years, just so long as she doesn't say publicly how much.

Don't it make you feel proud to know that by agreement of the immigration officials, "Miss" Emma Goldman, by virtue of her marriage, is an American citizen?

We were told the other day that John Skelton Williams was "looking it over"—the S. A. L., with the intention of buying it. If we remember correctly, he has seen it before, on more than one occasion.

Taft men declare their champion will win on the first ballot but some of them up in Massachusetts are not so sure of that, although they are only asking the second place on the ticket for their Governor.

A committee has been appointed at Yale College to devise means of stopping the Sunday exodus of the upper class men to New York. There is certainly a great difference between going to church on Sunday and going to gay old New York.

The Massachusetts Republicans are a considerate lot. If Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., were not sick, near unto death, they would probably try and load him down with the Presidential nomination, but as it is they only ask him to shoulder the second place on the ticket.

In't it rather remarkable that there should be 15 insane men among the 150 patients taken from the fleet to San Francisco on the hospital ship Relief? But then there are a heap of people in the United States who have maintained that the whole cruise was a crazy idea from its very inception.

An evangelist now conducting a revival in Pittsburg insists that his congregation whistle the hymn tunes as well as sing them. In this way, he asserts, the men who cannot sing, or do not sing, will pick up the tunes and whistle them outside which will do much good. We fear his last assertion is a little rash.

THIS IS PALM SUNDAY

Beginning of Holy Week, Last Before Glorious Easter Next Sabboth.

IN WILMINGTON CHURCHES

Services Appropriate to This Sacred Period in the Calendar—Announcement for Local Pulpits Today.

In all Wilmington churches which observe the Lenten period, today will be celebrated as Palm Sunday, the last before glorious Easter and the beginning of Holy or Passion Week. Palm Sunday commemorates the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, when the multitude strewed palm "branches" or leaves in his way. In all the churches there will be special decorations and sermons and services appropriate to the day.

Holy Week is devoted especially to commemorate the passion of our Lord and services are held on the days of the seven more especially solemnized. Holy Week is an institution of very early origin and is known as Great Week, Silent Week, Penitential Week, etc. Spy Wednesday was a name given in allusion to the betrayal of Christ by Judas Iscariot. Monday, or Holy Thursday specially commemorates the institution of the Eucharist. Good Friday is sacred as commemorating the crucifixion of our Lord and Master.

The services at St. James today will be at 7:45 A. M., 11 A. M. and 5:30 P. M., and will be especially appropriate to the day.

There will be special services at St. John's Church, Third and Red Cross streets, as follows: Morning prayer 7:30 A. M. Evening prayer and Ante Communion 5:30 P. M. There will also be a celebration of the Holy Communion on Thursday at 8 P. M., with sermon on "Preparation for the Reception of the Holy Communion." On Good Friday there will be Morning prayer at 9 A. M.; Litany, Ante Communion and sermon by Bishop Strange at 12 M.; Evening prayer with meditations on "The Seven Words From the Cross," conducted by Bishop Strange at 6 P. M. A cordial invitation to all services.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church the services will be: Morning services and sermon at 11 A. M., with evening services and sermon at 8 P. M. Bishop Strange will preach at the morning service.

The Rev. John F. Nichols, of New York, will preach at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Sixth and Queen streets, this morning in the absence of the rector, who is holding services at Burgaw. Mr. Noe will preach at night. All are cordially invited to both services.

Rev. Geo. S. Bearden, the pastor, has prepared a very interesting series of services for Passion Week at St. Matthew's English Lutheran Church. He has arranged a chart on canvass, which will be placed behind the pulpit, on which a diagram showing the events of Good Friday as they occur in regular order will be shown. Each night at 8 o'clock the pastor will preach on one of the seven utterances of Chirst while on the cross, beginning the service tonight. This is not only a unique and interesting service, but enables one to bear in mind the events of that day. On Good Friday night a large rustic cross will be placed on one side of the pulpit. This will be draped in purple. On Easter Sunday morning the children at their annual exercises at 7 A. M. will bring flowers to cover it. A valuable lesson will be impressed upon them thereby. A class will be confirmed on Easter Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

St. Paul's Lutehran Church: The large class of catechumens, which was publicly examined last Sunday night, together with the adult class, will be publicly confirmed by the pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at this morning's service. Confirmation services in St. Paul's are always very impressive and the fact that this the present class, is the first to be confirmed in the new church and the largest in the history of the congregation, makes this morning's services of special interest to many. During Holy Week services will be held in St. Paul's as follows: Monday, 8:15 P. M.; Tuesday, 4 P. M.; Wednesday, 8:15 P. M.; Thursday, 4 P. M.; Good Friday, German service with the Holy Communion, 11 A. M.; English Vesper service, 8 P. M. All of these services will be conducted by the pastor. At the service on Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. G. S. Bearden will deliver the sermon.

St. James Brotherhood.

There will be a special meeting of the Saint James Brotherhood in the parish house this morning immediately after the 11 o'clock service. A full attendance of members is desired.

MARION SEASIDE HOME

Splendid Beneficence on Wrightsville Beach to be Continued and Improved—Recent Meeting of Board of Trustees.

It is gratifying to know that all arrangements have been made not only for continuing but for greatly enlarging that splendid beneficence established last year at Wrightsville Beach and known as the Marion Seaside Home, during the coming season.

A meeting of the trustees of this institution was held on Wednesday afternoon of the past week and it was announced that through the same kind friend who made possible the opening of the institution last year, the trustees will this season be enabled to enlarge the home by the addition of nine rooms on the second floor and otherwise greatl improve the property, which was formerly the Murchison cottage. All the additional rooms will be with bath, hot and cold water, and all other modern conveniences. This department will be conducted on a paid basis, as it was the experience of the trustees last year that many would not take advantage of the great benefits of the home unless they could pay for the same commensurate with the service. On this account, it has been decided to have this second story of the building devoted exclusively to the treatment of children, whose parents are able and willing to pay the rates of from $2 to $3.50 per day. This will include board for the mother and child and the services of trained nurses. The trustees have engaged as superintendent a trained nurse of New York City, who has had several years special training in a children's hospital in the metropolis and who is a specialist in that particular line. She is a full graduate and a lady of many accomplishments in her profession. The first floor will still be retained as wards for patients, whose parents are willing to pay only a nominal sum or nothing whatever and the service will not at all be neglected.

The Marion Seaside Home is managed by a board of trustees of which Mr. M. W. Jacobi is president; Mr. S. M. Boatwright, secretary; Dr. C. P. Bolles, treasurer; Dr. E. J. Wood, house physician, and Dr. Joseph Akerman, house surgeon. Mrs. Helen G. Lane has been engaged for another year as matron and the outlook for a great work among the little ones is indeed promising. At the meeting Wednesday afternoon, Dr. Wood read a very interesting report of the work and made a number of recommendations, which the trustees have adopted. This report will be published later in full for its value to mothers and those having the care of little ones.

The contract for the new story on the building will be let as soon as possible in order that the Home may be opened promptly on time. The plans and specifications have been prepared by Messrs. Field & Lilly, the well known architects in the Garrell building.

Coco-Cola Bottling Works.

Mr. G. H. Hutaff has just returned from Elizabeth City where he has installed an up-to-date bottling plant for the famous Coca-Cola. This plant will supply all the territory north of Albemarle Sound and east of Kitty Hawk and Roanoke Island, extending to the border of Virginia. The plant expects to begin operations Monday and will be in charge of Mr. H. L. Hardison, manager. The capital invested in the plant is $5,000 and is owned by G. H. Hutaff and W. E. and R. A. Cromwell, who have been in Mr. Hutaff's employ for a number of years.

Change of Seaboard Schedule.

Attention of the traveling public is called to the fact that beginning today there is a change in the Seaboard Air Line schedule by which the afternoon train for Charlotte in the future will leave at 3 P. M. instead of 4 P. M. as heretofore. The train which formerly arrived at 12:25 A. M. will reach here 20 minutes later, and there is no charge in the arrival of what is known as the "noon train" from Charlotte. The public is asked to take note especially of the departure of the train in the afternoon an hour earlier.

Police Court Yesterday.

In the police court yesterday Levi McCloskey and Louis Suggs, white lads, chanrged with throwing over-ripe eggs into the Lowenstein store on North Fourth street, were discharged upon promise of their parents to administer them a sound thrashing. Jack Faison, the negro arrested for throwing a rock at a circus man Friday night, was discharged, there being no evidence against him. James French, charged with vagrancy, was found not guilty. Other cases were trifling.

Revival at Southside.

The series of very successful revival meetings which has been in progress during the past week at Southside Baptist church will be continued through this week with services each day at 3:30 and 7:45 P. M. Rev. G. A. Martin, the pastor, has been confined to his home the past week with illness but is now able to be up and will be with Rev. Dr. Haymore, of Mt. Airy, who is assisting him. The public is cordially invited to any or all of the services and are assured that they will be benefitted by an attendance.

IN LOCAL POLITICS

Messrs. Carr and Kellum, Announce Their Platform For the General Assembly.

BOTH ARE FOR OVERMAN

Another Entry For Register of Deeds and One for Coroner—Nothing Yet From Colonel Morton and Mr. Empie.

Formal statements were made yesterday by both Messrs. Carr and Kellum, candidates for legislative honors, declaring themselves for the re-election of Senator Overman in case they are sent from New Hanover to the General Assembly. There were no other developments in the local political situation yesterday other than the formal announcement of Mr. John A. Everitt, Jr., for Register of Deeds, and Dr. C. D. Bell, for re-nomination as coroner.

The rumor was still persistent yesterday that Messrs. Empie and Morton would be candidates on the legislative ticket, but neither of them formally announced. Their friends are at work however, and assurance is being given that they are both for Overman, first last and all the time. The cards of Messrs. Carr and Kellum in regard to their positions are as follows:

To the Democratic Voters of the Eleventh Senatorial District:

At the request of several hundred voters of this Senatorial District, as expressed in a petition presented to me, I have consented to allow my name to be presented to your consideration for the nomination for State Senator in the approaching Democratic primaries in New Hanover and Brunswick counties.

In response to repeated inquiries, I deem it proper for me to state my position on certain questions of public interest at this time, and I will say now that I approve the recent action of the Democratic Executive Committee of New Hanover county in declaring that the prohibition question should not be an issue in the coming primaries for the nomination of candidates and I shall treat the result of the election on May 26th, as a settlement of this question, whatever that result may be.

As to the election of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Overman, I will say that his record appeals to me as indicative of the fact that he is making an able and faithful representative of the people, and, viewing the facts as I now see them, I should consider it my duty to the State to advocate his return to the United States Senate.

I believe that the State Government should regulate and control railroads and other public corporations and hold them to a strict accountability to the law, but at the same time should pursue a policy of fairness toward them, which would enable them to earn a reasonable return from the capital invested and to pay to their employes a just and full compensation for their labor. In short, I think the State should deal with questions of this kind upon their merits, endeavoring to do justice to all parties, and should approach such questions as a business matter and not as a political one.

I shall not, for the purpose of securing votes or for any other purpose, allow myself to be committed to any special interest of any kind and I do not care to go to the Senate unless I can go unhampered and free to perform my duty to the State as I see it; but if I am elected I shall endeavor to render the public the best service of which I am capable.

Respectfully,
J. O. CARR.

Woodus Kellum, Esq., was seen yesterday afternoon and made the following statement:

I have been requested by a large number of representative citizens of New Hanover County to allow my name to be run as a candidate before the Democratic primaries on May 14th, for the nomination for the House of Representatives. I have consented to allow my name to be used in this connection and have read carefully the statement signed by J. O. Carr, Esq., whose name is being urged for the State Senate from the Eleventh Senatorial District. I simply wish to say that I fully endorse the views as expressed by him in his statement and as our views are alike upon these questions I do not deem it necessary to say anything further than that the views expressed by him coincide with mine.

If I should be chosen a member of the House from New Hanover County I assure the voters of this county that I shall do everything in my power to represent them faithfully and to perform my duty as their representative.

WOODUS KELLUM.

The following names are presented as delegates from the Second Ward to the County Convention, to be voted for at the primary election: Wm. E. Springer, W. H. Brown, J. C. Stewart, E. Borden, Jos. D. Smith, W. C. Von Glahn, T. C. James, W. F. Corbett, T. E. Sprunt, D. H. Penton.

FRYING PAN LIGHTSHIP

Recent Removal of Beacon From Its Proper Position With Reference to Cape Fear is Discussed With Authority.

The Star has received the following which it is very glad to print as of importance to the maritime interests of the port:

"The people of the port of Wilmington knowing the importance of maintaining necessary aids to the safe navigation of the dangerous approaches to this harbor, are now deeply interested in the recent most unwise action of the Light House Board in removing without proper notice to our authorities the one beacon of greatest importance to our navigators which has guided the Mariner to the Cape Fear River in safety for more than forty years.

"Our Chamber of Commerce has acted in concert with our Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage in futile attempts to have the Frying Pan Light ship restored to its former position; many master mariners also united in a strong petition to the Government for the same relief. Hon. H. L. Godwin, acting upon the initiative of our Board of Navigation, urged the Chairman of the Light House Board to restore the vessel to her former moorings but only obtained a promise of a substitute asked for in case of refusal—a farewell flash light buoy, within a year. Meanwhile this proposed substitute is regarded by many as wholly inadequate to meet the emergency as it could not be seen properly in daylight.

"The following correspondence between the Chairman of the Board of Navigation and Pilotage and the Commander of the United States Revenue Cutter "Seminole" on this station will show the great danger which threatens the commerce of this port

Board of Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage, Wilmington, N. C., April 10, 1908.

Captain J. H. Quinan, Commanding United States Revenue Cutter "Seminole," Wilmington, N. C.

Dear Sir: Since the unfortunate removal of the Frying Pan Shoals Light ship from its former moorings to its present position, this Board has received many complaints from Master Mariners and ship owners, that a correspondingly increased hazard to navigation has resulted from the lack of proper beacons upon our dangerous coast, with particular reference to the shoals in question; and, as these protests (after ineffectual appeals to the Lighthouse Board) have become of almost daily occurrence, we have deemed it proper to ask from you, officially, an expression of your observations on the subject during your winter cruising on this station, in order that we may act through our representatives in Congress upon this important matter, with definite and reliable data.

Yours very truly,
JAMES SPRUNT,
Chairman of the Board.

United States Revenue Cutter Service, Steamer Seminole, Wilmington, N. C., April 10, 1908.

Mr. James Sprunt, Chairman Board of Commissioners, Navigation and Pilotage, Wilmington, N. C.

Sir: Replying to your letter of this date; I have no hestitation in expressing the opinion that the Frying Pan Shoals Lightship should never have been moved from its former position, unless replaced with another lightship. Of course I can not deny that on account of the 3 3-4 fathom spot, the present position is of some advantage to certain vessels plying the coast and not entering Cape Fear, but for vessels bound to Wilmington, the present location is a serious disadvantage and a serious injury to the commerce of that city.

I consider Frying Pan Shoals more dangerous than Hatteras or Lookout for the reason that the shoal is longer, and there are many shoal spots which do not break except in the heaviest gales. The currents too are extremely irregular, depending upon direction of wind and strength of tide, and if any man knows exactly how that current is going to set until he reaches the shoals and then learns from actual observation, I would like to meet him. I have been cruising here for three years and ought to know the local conditions, but I confess I can not tell. How much more difficult therefore, it must be for a stranger. The present bell buoy or any buoy, for that matter, is totally inadequate. Running down from Lookout this Winter, I would not dare to run for this bell buoy. I would first make the lightship, get my position accurately, say have the light ship bear S. E. 5 miles, then shape a course directly for the buoy. Sometimes I would make it nearly ahead, but more often find it several points on the port bow, and in the latter case, had the weather been thick, would not have seen it at all. With sailing vessels it is worse on account of leeway.

Had the domestic shipping at Wilmington been as great this Winter as last Winter or Winter before last, it is my firm belief, that there would have been many strandings on Frying Pan Shoals.

If it is the intention of the Government to permanently maintain the lightship in its present position, then there ought to be another lightship in the old position. By having two lightships, the problem would be solved and everybody pleased.

Respectfully,
J. H. QUINAN,
Capt., U. S. R. C. S., Commanding.

FOR THE PLAINTIFF

Jury in Superior Court Returns Verdict in Case of Smith Against Moore.

A RECESS UNTIL MONDAY

Interesting Suit Brought by Attorney Against Newbern Parties For Recovery of Fee for Professional Services.

After remaining out 20 hours in an earnest deliberation over the case, the jury in New Hanover Superior Court which had in hearing the suit of Mrs. Louise B. Smith against Mrs. Susan E. Moore, Ex., and others, at 1:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon reached a verdict for the plaintiff, answering the one issue presented "yes."

The agreement was reached soon after the jury had enjoyed a good dinner at the Colonial Inn and was foreshadowed by a request that Judge Neal be at the Court House as soon as dinner was over. Most of the attorneys for the case were at home, but were summoned to the Court House and were on hand promptly. The verdict means that Miss Smith recovers the property at northeast corner of Second and Red Cross streets, variously estimated as worth from $6,000 to $10,000. Herbert McClammy, Esq., of counsel for the defendants, gave the usual notice that later he and his associates in the case would make the required motions upon which to base an appeal to the Supreme Court. The appeal will be perfected some time during the coming week.

The jury which had the case in hearing was composed of Messrs. J. B. Coley, B. Solomon, P. L. Page, J. H. Hobbs, C. R. Davis, C. L. Spencer, H. C. Hamlin, R. C. Platt, T. D. Love, W. F. Penny, J. P. Hopewell and C. W. Polvogt. The jury reported through Mr. Solomon and the answer was simply "yes," without qualification or explanation. It is stated that when the jury first retired it stood six to six. Later one member after another drifted to the plaintiff until the final agreement was reached. All Friday night members of the jury remained up without sleep in an honest endeavor to get at a proper verdict and the strain told on them when they came out yesterday.

Except for the hearing of a petition and the granting of a restoration of naturalization papers to Mr. M. G. Tiencken, one of Wilmington's best German citizens, nothing else was done in the court yesterday. The naturalization papers were granted to Mr. Tiencken in 1874, but the records had been destroyed in the burning of his house some years ago and action by the Superior Court was necessary for their restoration. The court readily granted the restoration upon motion of Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, counsel for the petitioner.

Judge Neal left yesterday afternoon to spend Sunday at his home at Laurinburg. He will return to the city for the second week of the term on the noon Seaboard train Monday and court will convene at 2:30 P. M. The case of most interest is one in which Iredell Meares, Esq., attorney, sues J. J. Wolfenden and the estate of the late J. A. Meadows, of Newbern, for a balance on a $25,000 fee for professional services rendered in the recent sale of the Green Swamp lands to the defendants and the resale of the same lands by the defendants to other parties. Appearing for Mr. Meares are Rountree & Carr, Ricaud & Empie, H. McClammy, and Robert Ruark. The defendants are represented by Hon. John D. Bellamy & Son, of Wilmington, and W. W. Clark, Esq., of Newbern.

The complaint sets forth that there are about 200,000 acres of land in the tract upon which are some thirty million feet of timber; that through the co-operation of the plaintiff, who was preparing to organize a stock company for taking over the lands, the defendants were sold the property for $60,000 and that later, through the co-operation and assistance of the plaintiff, the same tract was sold to other parties for $357,000, the defendants making a net profit of $250,000 on the transaction. The only payment made on the attorney's fee was $1,000 and the plaintiff later retained $1,718.83 out of moneys in his hands, which is all he has received, judgment being asked for $25,000 less that amount with interest from November 17th 1904 and costs. Yesterday an order was served by the plaintiff requiring of the defendants the production at the trial of the paper writing, dated March 6th 1903, signed by the New Jersey and North Carolina Land and Lumber Co., by Iredell Meares, attorney, being an option to purchase the property known as the Green Swamp lands and notifying them that if they failed to produce the paper, the plaintiff will offer secondary evidence thereof.

OUR ROTTEN RICH.

It now seems that the mania for title-hunting that Anna Gould has developed, has resulted in her engagement to Prince de Sagan, a decayed relic of the French nobility, and also a serious quarrel with the members of her family, which will probably eventual in an effort to contect the will of Jay Gould ,that provides for a reduction by one half of any child's share of the fortune who marries without the consent of a majority of the executors.

These are Helen Gould, a noble and charitable woman; and George Gould, the head of the present house, an able man of affairs and a self respecting gentleman; both of whom are bitterly opposed to the proposed marriage.

But from all accounts Anna is determined to have her way and her worthless prince.

She was divorced only a few months ago from the Count Boni de Castellane and would now wed her former husband's relative whose title is a bit higher, so the vulgarity of a divorcee's quick marriage is added to a situation which promises to be more scandalous by a fight for money.

In commenting on the humiliation which the other members of the Gould family must suffer, the New York Sun says:

"Its first beginning was the marriage of an American girl to a French debauchee and pauper 'count,' who after years of infamous living has been got rid of to make room for No. 2—a member of the same family, who, if possible, passes No. 1 in the record of a useless and evil life. In course of time, after the wife wearies of paying the expenses of dressing this man doll, he, too, will be divorced, and the American fortune will be again in the market to purchase another title. The general record of these title-buying matches is this—either divorce or separation—at all events, unhappiness and scandal. But it is not often that the title hunter persists, as in this case, the awakened girl being generally satisfied with one experience. What an unhappy, disreputable thing to make of a life!—and in contrast to a life made so beautiful and beneficent as that of the sister in the case."

It is well to say that the whole affair is both humiliating and disgusting to the American people, who should know by this time that they have nothing to expect from their plutocracy but the production of scandals which are a disgrace to the nation, because these representatives of the millionaire class are erroneously regarded abroad as the highest type of the American people.

It seems that no sooner does one scandal of the "gilded set" disappear from the public stage than another is put on, and at the present time the disgraceful Vanderbilt case and the Gould-de-Sagan affair are dividing the time.

All things considered is it surprising to hear the decent classes of the American people describe the plutocracy as "our rotten rich."

THE DEMOCRATIC SITUATION.

There are now plenty of indications that the National Democratic convention at Denver will not be so completely one-sided or single-minded as has been frequently predicted.

The Republicans are having their troubles over their Presidential candidates, and it is among the possibilities that the Democrats, not to be outdone by their political opponents, may yet furnish the country with more excitement than is now anticipated, when their delegates meet to choose a man to succeed President Roosevelt at Washington.

A few months ago it looked as though Colonel Bryan would be nominated, possibly unanimously. But now there is considerable question as to his nomination at all and this is cropping out in a number of States and in some most unexpected places, even among loyal Bryan men.

This is daily increasing in strength and if it should develop no more than sufficient power to control a little over one-third of the delegates there will undoubtedly be lively times in the Denver convention. The successful nominee must receive two-thirds of the whole number of votes in the convention.

In spite of Mr. Bryan's strong hold on at least a part of the Democratic party, which by-the-way is undoubtedly growing weaker, there are already numerous delegations which are going to the convention unpledged and by proper organization, it would not be impossible for them to muster votes enough to give the leaders a pause.

Whether this will occur or not remains to be seen, but present indications certainly point that way. The attempt of Mr. Bryan to force himself on his party is being resented by many men, strong in the organization, who in the past have been faithful followers of the Nebraskan.

The passive, but willing to serve, attitude of Governor Johnson is in strong contrast to that of Mr. Bryan and is daily winning recruits to the Minnesota camp.

It would neither be safe nor sensible for the Democrats to allow any candidate to force himself on the party and the fact that there will be so many unpledged delegates to the convention from States which have large electoral votes is a good omen for the party. This demonstrates that there are Democratic delegates who have been in both the radical and conservative camps of the party who are now calmly reviewing the situation and have reached the conclusion that the country would welcome a new ticket.

When this class of delegates reach Denver they will find many who will agree with them.

MR. ASQUITH'S CHANCE.

Premier Asquith has a great chance before him. In the prime of life, with the experience of nearly 20 years in politics and the lessons taught his predecessors in the Liberal leadership, on which to draw for guidance if needed, there is no reason why he should not become a powerful force in the political life of Great Britain.

On the other hand, if his policy should be one of retrogression, of abdication of the principles of his former leader, and of drift instead of reform, he will not alone shorten the tenure of his own premiership, but will lay the foundation for another prolonged period in the political desert for the party of which he has now become the head.

His tendencies in recent years have not been regarded as nearly as progressive as those of his late chief. The restraint which was quietly if grudgingly exercised by the radical elements of the Liberal party, though loyalty to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman might be readily cast aside in the case of Mr. Asquith.

He has shown that there is very little in common between the labor party and himself.

On the Irish question the relations between the new premier and the Irish party for several years back might easily be strained to the breaking point. Just how Mr. Asquith will comfort himself in the position of prime minister to which he has been called is a matter of conjecture and his every act will be watched with great interest by the people of two continents.

The Boston, Mass., Globe, in declaring for Governor Johnson for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency says:

Governor Johnson's statement of his attitude toward the Presidential nomination is manly and straightforward—just the sort of thing that might be expected from the man.

TOO MANY NEWSPAPERS.

(Danville, Va., Register.)

The Wilmington Messenger, one of the oldest and formerly one of the most influential daily newspapers in North Carolina, has suspended publication after a career of nearly a score of years. The publication will dscontinue the newspaper, but will continue in the job printing business. The reason for the suspension of publication of the paper is that it had ceased to be profitable. No better reason could be assigned. A newspaper that cannot pay expenses and a return on the investment ought to discontinue, and the sooner the better for the owners, and for the rival paper, if there be one, and likewise for the community, for the increased patronage made possible for the surviving journal gives the public assurance of a better paper. Few cities are large enough to support two morning newspapers, outside of the large centers of population. In Richmond, Atlanta, Charleston, Savannah, Jacksonville, Augusta, Columbia, Charlotte and Raleigh, there is but one morning daily.

The Star, the surviving paper in the Wilmington field, is a strong, healthy and influential journal and will doubtless give its patrons better news service hereafter than ever before. The field was too small for two creditable papers and the result is but the survival of the fittest.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—With two wild elephants around Valdosta and numerous blind tigers in Augusta, Georgia has quite a menagerie.—American Times-Recorder.

—The reduction in the acreage of mint is expected to increase the cotton crop of Georgia and Mississippi by 500,000 bales this year. —Charleston News and Courier.

—Seven years of Roosevelt and ten years of Republican rule and Dingleyism have bred innumerable trusts and culminated in a financial panic and prolonged business depression.—Franklin Times.

—An Illinois editor who began business 25 years ago without capital is now worth $100,000. This refutes the idea that there is no money in the newspaper business. However, a rich uncle who died and left him over $100,000 in the meantime contributed a little to this phenomenal success.—Augusta Herald.

—We shall miss the Wilmington Messenger, whose daily visits we have enjoyed for nearly a score of years. It was always a puzzle to us that a city with as small a population as Wilington, prosperous as it was, could support two expensive morning dailies.—Norfolk Landmark.

—Mr. Bryan was given something to think about when Governor Johnson of Minnesota signified his willingness to stand hitched while his friends boomed him for the Presidency. Not only did that receptive candidate express a willingness to get into the game, but dealt the Nebraskan this left-handed blow: "In reply let me say that I do not believe that any American citizen should be an active, open candidate for the nomination to the Presidency." Mr. Bryan will do well to inquire whether there is anything personal in this observation.—Greensboro Industrial News.

RHEUMATISM

Makes a man feel old before his time. His joints become stiff, his circulation poor, and his suffering makes him irritable.

Sloan's Liniment

gives him instant relief from pain, starts up a good circulation, relieves congestion, and gives elasticity to the muscles and joints. It is very penetrating, needs hardly any rubbing. Best remedy for Sciatica, Lumbago, Sprains, Strains, Cuts, Burns and Bruises.

25c., 50c., and $1.00.

—Blobbs—Closefit says he believes in taking things as they come. Slobbs—Yes, but he hates to part with them as they go.—Philadelphia Record.

—"Miss Esmeralda, do you ever think of marrying?" "Often and deeply, Mr. Chucksber. I suppose that's why I don't marry."—Chicago Tribune.

—Mrs. Flynn—Th' lanlord has raised th' rint t' fifteen darlers, Moike. Mr. Flynn—Th' hear-rtiess writch! It wor all we could do ivry month to bate him out av tin!—Puck.

—"He speaks well, but he makes queer groping motions with his hands." "Force of habit. He got his start as an orator in a grocery store lyceum."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Green—What's the maxim about taking care of the pennies? Brown—Take care of your pennies and let the get-rich-quick schemes take care of themselves.—Chicago News.

—Traveler (in station restaurant)—Hi, waiter, this is a pretty small beefsteak. Waiter—Yes, but, you see, if you had more to eat, you would lose your train.—Wiener Caricaturen.

—"I hear that Jones' four daughters are married." "Is that so? I suppose he's glad he's got them off his hands." "Not exactly. He now has to keep the four husands on their feet."—Brooklyn Life.

—Mrs. Goodart—If I give you some money will you promise not to spend it in the nearest saloon? Thirsty Tim—Sure, ma'am, if yer gimme enough ter make de delay an' de extra walk wort' while.—Philadelphia Press.

—Dolan (with magazine)—Begorra! but thot's a strange hallucynation! An ostrich thinks he's out av soight whin he puts his head in th' sand. Mrs. Dolan—How loike a man whin he puts his head in a silk hat!—Judge.

—"My wife insisted upon my attending her pink tea yesterday afternoon, and I simply had to swear under my breath." "Why, how was that?" "What else could I do? There were ladies present."—Catholic Standard and Times.

DOCTOR THE SKIN TO CURE THE SKIN.

Scientific Study Proves Eczema Cannot Be Treated by Dosing the Stomach With Drugs.

Advanced medical science, after years of study and research, is now practically agreed that Eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum and diseases of like nature are skin diseases—and cannot be cured by doctoring the blood. The treatment prescribed is the direct application of healing, soothing remedies to the skin.

"Doctor the itch where the itch is," such is the common sense as well as scientifically correct conclusion. Oil of wintergreen, compounded with such other soothing vegetable remedies as glycerine and thymol in D. D. D. Prescription, is recognized as the specific. Physicians use D. D. D. Prescription freely in their practice. Dr. C. A. V. Hartleben, Washington, D. C., writes as follows:

"D. D. D. Prescription is medicinal, soothing and the effect is miraculous. God knows it saved me a deal of suffering. I recommend it to everyone I can."

This letter is only one of many testifying to the merits of this purely vegetable remedy. Copies of other letters may be seen at our store. Robt. R. Bellamy, Wilmington, N. C. Free treatise on care and nutrition of the skin may be had on application.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. It will not wash off, it is perfectly harmless to animals and people, and has a wonderful power to prevent blight, rust and those diseases so generally prevalent among melons and vegetables.

IT KILLS THE BUG.

The many friends of Captain Owen S. Willey, who was formerly in command of the United States Revenue cutter Algonquin at this port, will read with interest the announcement of his retirement at Savannah upon reaching his 64th birthday on Tuesday of the past week. He has served for many years in the Revenue Cutter Service and in the United States Navy on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Many months were spent by him in charge of a vessel in the Behring sea, chasing and catching seal poachers, and Wilmington friends have heard many interesting stories from him of the life there. Captain Willey is a descendant of a sister of Robert Emmett, the Irish patriot. His grandfather and great grandfather were exiled to America after his great grandfather, one of the "Men of '98" was executed for his part in the uprising of that year. His grandfather was but nine years of age when he reached America. Captain Willey will live for the remainder of his life in the North. He has a collection of pictures that show much of his service in the employ of the United States, the pictures including scenes in many out of the way parts of the world.

FIERY CHARLES READE.

The Author-Manager's Way With Ellen Terry, the Actress.

Ellen Terry at the age of twenty resolved to leave the stage and went and stayed six years in the country. How she came back to it is told in "Ellen Terry," by Christopher St. John.

Charles Reade when hunting in Hertfordshire met her by chance in a country lane and told her in his rough yet kindly way that she was a fool to have left the stage.

"Why don't you go back?"

"I don't want to."

"You will some day."

"Never!" Then, mindful of certain financial troubles threateneing her rural peace, Ellen Terry added, "At least not until some one gives me $200 a week."

"Done!" said Charles Reade. "I will."

The part Miss Terry played for Reade was Phillippa Chester in "The Wandering Heir." At the end of the run of this piece she did not leave his management, but went on tour in several of his plays. The tour was financially disastrous, but a suggestion from Ellen Terry that her parts did not carry her salary and that she had better leave, as any one could play these parts equally well, was received with the greatest indignation by the fiery author-manager.

"Madam, you are a rat! Don't imagine it is generous to desert the sinking ship," expressed his view of the situation.

An old lady who lived with Miss Terry at this time and was her inseparable companion remonstrated with Reade for his harsh language to her "Nelly." "I love her better than you do or any puling woman," Reade answered.—Manchester Guardian.

VANISHING TROUSERS.

A Simple Trick Which May or May Not Be Humorous.

This is a simple trick, and every married woman can perform it, but it requires the assistance of a confederate with a big bag of shining tinware on his back.

First get a husband with an extra pair of slightly worn trousers in his wardrobe; then have the confederate, the man with the bag of tinware, come to the back door and knock gently. The wife must then peep out in a frightened way, and immediately the man with the tinware tells a tale that resembles an advertisement. The wife stops to think a few minutes. Suddenly she must rush to the wardrobe, but only after the man rattles the brilliant tinware to arouse her. The wife must walk back to the man again with the trousers. The man must take them and hand the wife a few tin pans. All the while the man with the tinware must smile happily. At last the transaction is completed, and, presto change! the husband's trousers have disappeared and in their place appears some tinware on the kitchen table. This trick is very novel and will amuse the husband greatly. The trick should not be performed while the husband is in bed unless he has an extra pair of trousers.—F. P. Pitzer in Judge.

Every child is doomed to disappointment. All children imagine that as soon as they are twenty-one they will "do as they please."

State your views on any subject, and if your listener says he hasn't made up his mind it means he disagrees with you and hates to say so.

NAVAL STORES TRADE

Mr. E. S. Nash Addresses Caustic Letter to Savannah Paper in Regard to Reported Grand Jury Investigations of Conditions.

Mr. E. S. Nash, president of the American Naval Stores Company at Savannah, has written a very caustic letter to the Savannah Morning News in regard to a reported investigation by a United States grand jury of the reasons of the alleged demoralization of the naval stores market, claiming that the investigation and reports thereon are the efforts of competitors to injure their business The letter of Mr. Nash is as follows:

"Editor Morning News: An intelligent public must have perceived that we have been extremely patient, but patience sometimes 'ceases to be a virtue.' The article in yesterday's paper, Naval Stores Trade to Be Investigated, is neither just nor fair. It simply repeats rumors designed for sensational reading and without any investigation as to the correctness or accuracy of the rumors. No representative has ever been to us to ascertain our position. The statements to the effect that a score of indictments were returned in a similar case, and the court accepted pleas of guilty in two or three cases are erroneous. There was one indictment which contained a number of counts, and this indictment was finally disposed of. It charged no moral wrong, and, if there was real guilt, it was purely technical and resulted from the efforts of the parties concerned to defend themselves against a Florida corporation formed, avowedly, for the purpose of running out of business the main corporations indicted.

"What we protest against is that you are permitting our rivals and competitors in business to annoy and injure us. Every now and then Mr. W. M. Toomer of Florida, comes to Savannah, confers with the assistant district attorney (Mr. Akerman), who lends a willing ear to any charge that may be made against us, and then, at once, rumors are published emanating from Mr. Toomer, or the assistant district attorney—probably from both—the purpose of which is to create the impression in the trade that we are being investigated again, and will again be hauled up before the courts. If the assistant district attorney believes that we, or anyone connected with us, have violated the law, then it is his province to proceed before the grand jury, but he ought to keep out of the newspapers, and he ought not to help our rivals in business in their efforts to injure us.

"One of the persistent rumors in the community is to the effect that we are in some way in collusion with the Standard Oil Company. This name seems to be a favorite one to excite prejudice. It is a sort of 'raw head and bloody bones' in the imagination of the public. The fact is that neither the American Naval Stores Company nor anyone interested in the American Naval Stores Company, has the slightest interest in the Standard Oil Company, and neither the Standard Oil Company, nor anyone interested in the Standard Oil Company has the slightest interest in the American Naval Stores Company. This company and the Standard Oil Company have always been competitors, and no reason now exists, or has existed, to prevent or discourage active competition between the two concerns.

"It is true that the naval stores market, as has been the case with other markets, has recently been depressed. It is true that our competitors, including Mr. Toomer's company, have approximately 38,000 barrels of turpentine on hand, on which there is a large loss, and which they would like to sell in accordance with what we conceive to be our best interests. This is our entire offending. It is absolutely and unqualifiedly untrue that we have violated the Sherman anti-trust law, or any other act of Congress. If what we have done cannot lawfully be done, then it is impossible for us to do business. We do not fear any judicial investigation before any fair tribunal.

"We have no objection at all to the assistant district attorney presenting a case to his grand jury, if he believes that we have violated the law. We only ask that he present legal testimony, and that he make no effort to prejudice the grand jury by any statements except those that are correct and are relevant to the issue. If he does this his course will be more fair and more official than it was in the former prosecution.

"Our principal stockholders are largely interested in the production of naval stores, and their interest is to have these products sell at the highest prices. The American Naval Stores Company has pursued a course which its managing officers think will promote the interests of its stockholders, governing our operations by the laws of supply and demand, and any statement to the effect that this course has in any respect violated the law is absolutely and entirely incorrect and unfounded.

"Up to the present time, Mr. Toomer and his company have not been conspicuously successful in their war upon us, and we can understand their chagrin and animosity but we ask that covert attacks, through the newspapers, insinuations and innuendos, based upon rumors that have no foundation in truth or in justice, cease. As a matter of simple justice, we ask that you will give this prominence.

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Every woman should have beautiful and abundant hair, for nature lavishly rewards those who labor intelligently to preserve and beautify it. Is your hair oily or sticky? Is it dry, dull or lusterless? Have you dandruff? If so, you should use Newbro's Herpicide at once. It kills the germ or microbe that causes dandruff and falling hair, after which the hair will grow as nature intended. It stops itching of scalp almost instantly and gives the assurance of a cure from the very first application. It contains no oil or grease, and is unsurpassed for its daintiness. It makes the hair light and fluffy and gives it a silken gloss.

The Norfolk and Southern Railway announces that on and after Thursday, April 9th, the mileage exchange orders will be accepted on travel to inter-state points. These orders were in force on intra-state business on April 1st, and are now made effective on all travel.

Staunton, Va., April 7.—H. S. Jenkins, for many years engineman of the Valley road, was paralyzed yesterday while holding the throttle. The fireman knew something was wrong when he passed a station without stopping. Jenkins was brought to Staunton and is in a critical condition. He has a family.

Norfolk, Va., April 7.—The Pennsylvania Bridge Company of Beaver Falls, Pa., today entered suit in the United States Court against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, claiming $75,000 damages. The action grows out of a contract for the erection of shops and pits at Waycross, Ga., at $387,963.

Greenville, N. C., April 6.—The largest suit ever instituted in Pitt county, has been started here by Mr. E. A. Kline, a railroad contractor, against the Norfolk and Southern Railroad Company. J. G. White & Co., and Johnston & Grummett Bros. The suit grows out of contracts which Mr. Kline had with these parties in the construction of this division of the Norfolk and Southern road and for which he is unable to effect settlement. In connection with the suit a labor and material lien has been filed against the railroad for $100,340.

Columbia, S. C., April 7.—The railroad commission has decided to allow the railroads to give a fair trial to their new rules and regulations as to the new mileage books before ordering any change. At a recent meeting representatives of the two commercial travelers' organizations protested against these requirements, but the commission feels that the roads should be allowed to protect their revenues by putting their passenger traffic on a better business basis, particularly so since the commission has no power to force the roads from their position.

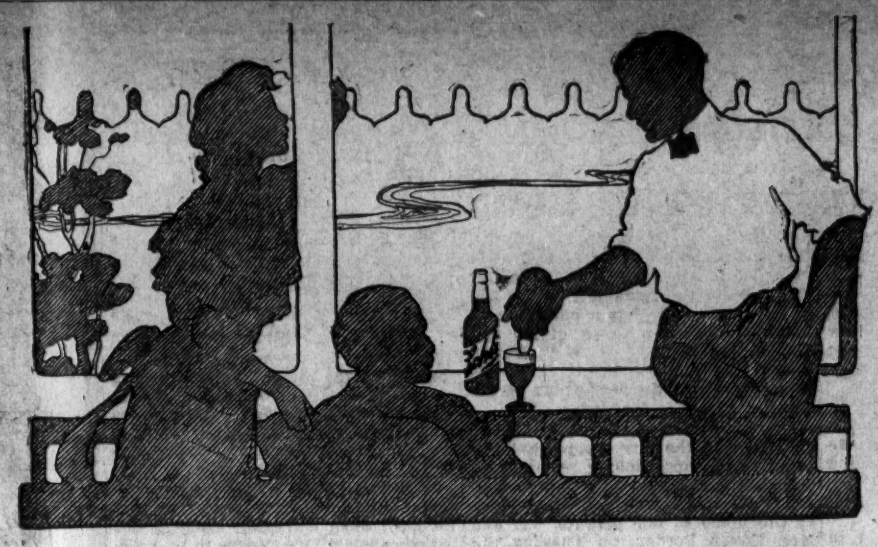
The northern trains are operating almost daily special Pullman coaches for the accommodation of returning tourists says the Augusta Chronicle of Wednesday. Atlantic Coast Line No. 32, leaving yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, carried the regular and one extra. Reservations are booked for the rest of this week, and the bulk of the return business is now about half finished. The Hampton Terrace sent a special coach of hotel help out yesterday on the Coast Line train. On Saturday the Coast Line will operate three special cars for hotel help one colored from the Terrace, and one from the Bon Aair, and a car of white help from the Hampton Terrace.

It is announced by the General Electric Company at Schenectady that the company has secured a $1,000,000 order from the Chicago Railway Company. This is the largest electrical order placed since the business depression set in last October and is pronounced evidence of the general resumption of business. While in itself an order for $1,000,000 worth of equipment is nothing new for the General Electric, it is nevertheless most cheering under present condition. The General Electric also announced three small orders aggregating a quarter of a million, two from Brazil and one from the Manchurian Railway of Corea. The foreign department of the company reports that the supply orders are way ahead of last year.

The car efficiency committee of the American Railway Association reports an improvement in the car situation, there being a decrease of 17,950 in the surplus, or idle cars since the first of November, 1907. The committee thinks that a large proportion of this decrease in idle cars can be accounted for by the action of the railroad and coal operators in storing coal in anticipation of a suspension of labor at the coal mines on April 1st. "A few groups, however," it says "show horizontal decreases in all classes of cars, including an actual improvement in all lines of traffic in those particular sections. This improvement is noted in the Southern, middle Western and Southwestern groups. In the New England group the surplus continues to increase, and the Canadian roads, which have heretofore shown the greatest improvement, seem to be again accumulating idle cars."

Greenville, S. C., April 7.—The engineering corps of the Carolina Construction company of Asheville, which is promoting the building of a high speed interurban trolley line from Asheville to Greenville via Greer, Flat Rock and Hendersonville, arrived here today and will begin tomorrow the location of the line from Greenville to Hendersonville, the other end of the line from Hendersonville to Asheville having been surveyed. J. S. Rowland of Hendersonville, president of the construction company, is in the city and will open offices here. He says the finances of the undertaking have already been arranged, and as soon as the engineers complete their work active operations will begin which will be by the middle of August. The company proposes to do a general freight and passenger business. President Rowland says that under favorable circumstances the line should be completed and under operation in less than two years.

Chester, Ill., April 7.—John R. Walsh's Illinois Southern Railway is to bear the brunt of the first legal struggle over the constitutionality of the 2 cent passenger rate law in Illinois. If the contentions of the attorneys for the road are sustained by the court, the lower passenger rate, which has been accepted by all the more powerful lines in the State, will be knocked out by the Walsh line, which is one of the shortest in Illinois. Armed with Supreme Court decisions of recent date, which purport to uphold their argument, attorneys for the Illinois Southern appeared before Judge B. R. Buprroughs, of the Circuit Court, yesterday and presented figures to support their assertions that the law was confiscatory in effect The case grew out of a claim of John Meyer, of Sparta, Ill., for 39 cents. Attorney W. T. Abbott, of Chicago, spent two hours in presenting books and records, with which he expects to prove the unconstitutionality of the law. His tables exhibited the business of the road for the first four months under the new law and showed that the actual cost of carrying passengers was 3 1-2 cents a mile



THE ALCOHOL in beer is a trifle—only 3½ per cent. The effective ingredients are barley and hops—a food and a tonic. Pure beer is both good and good for you.

In Germany, Holland, Sweden, Denmark and Austria beer is the national beverage. Nearly all people, of all ages, drink it.

And all the world envies their sturdy strength.

Every doctor knows how beer benefits. If you need more strength or vitality he will prescribe it.

But be careful to choose a pure beer, else you get harm with the good. And select a beer well aged to avoid biliousness.

The way to be sure is to order Schlitz. We go to extremes in cleanliness. We even filter the air that cools it. We age it for months. We sterilize every bottle.

Schlitz has no after effects.

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz.
To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.

The Beer That Made Milwaukee Famous

ON AND OFF THE BENCH

(From Personal Liberty.)

On the bench in his judicial ermine, gravely interpreting the law, Judge Pritchard is altogether different in his deductions than when on the hustings talking prohibition. In his campaign opening speech delivered at Wilmington the Judge said:

"If it is true that the presence of the barroom is a good thing for a town, then the greater number of such enterprises you have in our midst the better it will be for you from a business standpoint. You should have one on every square in the city and give all the people an opportunity to enjoy the great benefits which flow therefrom. If ten saloons are a good thing, then fifty saloons would be much better for the people."

Of course that isn't even sophistry. It isn't logic. It isn't anything but hot air. It is the assertion of a man who knew better, and it is to be regretted that a man with the intelligence which Judge Pritchard possesses would utter such skyblue stuff. If the Judge is correct in his premises then if the doctor would prescribe three grains of opium and it did good he should prescribe six grains and twelve grains and twenty-four grains and thirty-six grains and finally shovel it out by the spoonful—because three grains gave the suffering patient some relief. The same keen, cutting logic and broad ideas would find the hungry man eating a whole ox because a pound of beef steak appeased his hunger to a certain extent. According to the Judge we should have a hundred theatres because one is a good thing. We should have a hundred federal courts in a district because one is a necessity. We should double up on all things—except—how about blind tigers? If we have one place in a city where whiskey is sold illegally—the men who patronize it are responsible for its existence. You can legislate the place where the drunkard goes out of existence but you can't regulate or legislate the appetite. Because there is one man in a community who is addicted to the use of drugs, who has lost his intellect and become debauched and disgraced and degraded it does not follow, only according to prohibition logic, that all drug stores should be abolished. Because one man kills himself from over eating it does not follow that all men should cease to eat. Because once inawhile we find a man who drinks to excess the prohibitionist wants to cut out the regular place and turn the unfortunate victim of strong drink over to the blind tiger; wants to say that no man shall enjoy a glass of beer or a glass of wine (except for sacramental purposes), and the prohibitionist wants to fix it so the poor man; the laboring man and the farmer can't get anything at all except by looking up poor whiskey in a speak-easy while the rich prohibitionist can send and buy a case of whiskey sent direct to his home marked mineral water—"handle with care."

No, Judge Pritchard knows that such talk as above quoted and which he indulged in in his famous Wilmington speech was pure and unadulterated hot air. It was trying to make something out of nothing. A regulated bar room is a better thing than a blind tiger; it is better than the mail order business and the Judge told us in the same speech that since prohibition had been adopted in so many States and sections the consumption of whiskey was TWENTY MILLION GALLONS more each year. Two or three good stores in a small town are a good thing from a business standpoint; but a dozen would prove a bad thing viewed in any way and no one understands this better than Judge Pritchard who in this instance talked wildly to the grand stand.

Peruna seems to be the only thing that prohibitionists cannot get enough of to satisfy their desires.

Regulate a bar room and license and the police knows where to find it April 12.

Why Is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The first and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years. 50c.

SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

Gems of Thought From Works of Henry Ward Beecher.

The way to begin a Christian life is not to study theology. Piety before theology. Right living will produce right thinking.

A week filled up with selfishness, and the Sabbath stuffed full of religious exercises, will make a good pharisee, but a poor Christian. Many persons think Sunday is a sponge with which to wipe out the sins of the week.

The loom of life never stops; and the pattern which was weaving when the sun went down, is weaving when it comes up tomorrow. He who is false to present duty, breaks a thread in the loom, and will find the flaw, when he may have forgotten its cause.

Some men are like Pyramids, which are very broad where they touch the ground, but grow narrower as they reach the sky.

A man will confess sins in general; but those he would not have his neighbor know, he passes over in his prayer. Men are willing to be thought sinful in disposition, but in special acts they are disposed to praise themselves. They confess their depravity and defend their conduct. They are wrong in general, but right in particular.

The most dangerous infidelity of the day is the infidelity of rich and orthodox churches.

Deal-Robinson.

At the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. Newton Robinson, on Wednesday evening, April the 8th, at 6:00 o'clock, one of the sweetest and most impressive marriage ceremonies was solemnized when Miss Celesse Bizzell Robinson became the bride of Rev. Ralph Carroll Deal.

The large hall, parlor, living, and dining room of the Robinson home were tastefully decorated, and presented, one irresistable burst of Spring. Many candles, burning here and there amid the decorations, lent an artistic beauty to the scene.

Promptly at 6:00 o'clock the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohenfrin, rendered by Miss Mary E. Robinson, hushed the expectant guests, and the bride, in lovely soft white silk, carrying white roses, with her sister and maid of honor, Miss Helen Purdie Robinson, in a beautiful cream silk mull, carrying white carnations, appeared at the northern entrance to the parlor just as the groom with his brother and best man, Mr. H. Russell Deal, appeared at the western entrance. They marched to the further part of the room and paused beneath a skillfully arranged arch, and symbol of good luck. The music changed to "Melody of Love," and, by a beautifully simple and impressive ring ceremony the bride and groom elect became man and wife. Immediately "Mendelsshon's Wedding March" cast its spell over the company, and Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Carroll Deal found themselves besieged on all sides by the congratulations and good wishes of a happy host of admiring friends.

Led by the bridal party, the guests were then conducted to the dining room where elegant refreshments were served with a hospitality that knew no stint.

After this came the diversion of seeing the wedding gifts which were displayed in the living room. All who saw this handsome display have readily conceded that the numerous costly gifts do credit to the many loyal friends and relatives of the popular bride and room.

Miss Robinson comes from one of the best families of the Cape Fear section, and is easily one of Bladen's choicest daughters. The people of Elizabethtown give her up reluctantly.

Rev. Mr. Deal, who, as principal of the Clarkton Male Institute, first met Miss Robinson, has for a long time had a host of friends in this part of the county. He was originally a native of Greenville, S. C., but is now pastor of the first Presbyterian church of Kinston, N. C., and despite his years is already a marked man in the ministry.

The ceremony was most impressively performed by Rev. Alfred S. Anderson, of Gastonia, N. C., who was a class mate of the groom.

Immediately after the reception Rev. and Mrs. Deal left for Kinston, their future home.

WAR.

(Mary Baker B. Eddy.)

For many years I have prayed daily that there be no more war, no more barbarous slaughtering of our fellow-beings; prayed that all the people on earth and the islands of the sea have one God, one Mind; love God supremely, and love their neighbors as themselves.

National disagreements can be, and should be, arbitrated wisely, fairly; and fully settled.

It is unquestionable, however, that at this hour the armament of navies is necessary, for the purpose of preventing war and preserving peace among nations.

WEEK AT LUMBERTON

News and Personal Items From Robeson County Metropolis—Schedule Changes— Industrial Notes —Other Happenings.

(Special Star Corespondence.)

Lumberton, April 11.—Mr. W. H. Henderson, one of the efficient teachers in the Presbyterian Sunday School, entertained his class which is known as the Lychar Discussion Class, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nash, Tuesday night. Choice selections of music were rendered and refreshments served. Miss Addie Norment assisted Mr. Henderson in receiving. The occasion was declared by those present to be one of the most pleasant given here in some time.

Mrs. Martha Roberts, aged about 60 years, died Thursday night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Alma Skipper. Mrs. Roberts had been in bad health for some time, but her condition was not considered serious until a short time before her death. Funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. H. Durham yesterday afternoon and interment was made in East Lumberton cemetery.

Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of the Methodist church, being out of town, Prof. R. E. Sentelle will conduct services in that church tomorrow.

It is expected that construction work will soon be resumed on the Virginia & Carolina Southern road. The road was completed to St. Paul's some months ago, and has been doing considerable freight business between here and that point.

A baseball team went from here to Maxton yesterday where they crossed bats with a team of that town, but it seems to have been a one-sided game, Maxton winning by a score of 12 to 1.

A handsome new soda fountain has been installed in the drug store of Mr. John D. McMillan in place of the fountain which has been in use for some time.

A special train carried a large crowd of Masons to St. Paul's Tuesday night, who assisted the lodge of that town in conferring degrees on several candidates. Those who went speak in the highest terms of their reception by the St. Paul's people.

The R. & C. Sunday train between Lumberton and Marion, which was discontinued during the Winter season will be put on again tomorrow, when a new schedule goes into effect on that road. The train will leave here daily for Marion at 9:55 A. M., returning at 5:30 P. M., making connections both ways with the Seaboard and with the Coast Line at Proctorville.

Beginning Monday the express office will close in the evening promptly on the arrival of the 5:55 train from Wilmington. No more packages will be delivered after night.

By the change in schedule which goes into effect on the Seaboard tomorrow, the morning train from Wilmington will arrive at 7:26, same as at present, the morning train from Charlotte will arrive at 9:50, forty minutes earlier; the evening train from Wilmington will arrive at 5:55, one hour earlier, and the night train from Charlotte will arrive at 10 o'clock, just one minute later.

For the quarter ending March 31st, there was an increase in the postoffice receipts here over the same period last year of $125.00. These figures speak for themselves.

Capt. Amos King of the Raleigh & Charleston, has been engaged this week superintending the construction of a two-mile extension of that road out from Marion to a large new saw mill. Mr. Alf H. McLeod has been running the passenger train while Capt. King was off.

Mr. Geo. B. McLeod has added much to the appearance of his residence by having it repainted and substituting concrete curbing in place of the wooden fence around the yard.

We understand that Mr. John A. Rowland will be a candidate for Mayor of Lumberton at the coming election. It is also reported that the friends of Mr. A. E. White will make an effort to induce him to again serve in that capacity. Mr. White was Mayor for several years and was regarded as one of the very best that has ever served the town.

Dr. W. A. McPhaul has moved into the residence lately occupied by the Bachelor's club and Prof. J. R. Poole will occupy the residence vacated by Dr. McPhaul.

Mr. C. B. Skipper expects to attend the Knights of Pythias district meeting, to be held at Dunn next Wednesday as representative of Lumberton lodge.

The Chas. King Comedy Company is booked for this place next Saturday night, the 18th. This will be the third visit of this company to Lumberton, and that the opera house will be well filled is confidently expected.

Mrs. A. E. White, who has been very sick for several days, is much better and is now rapidly improving.

Mr. Walter Toon, of Chadbourn, arrived here last night to spend two or three days with friends.

Mr. J. T. Moore, assistant cashier of the Bank of Lumberton, is visiting his parents in Greenville, N. C. He is expected to return Monday.

Mr. Ira L. Pope, of the Pope Drug Company, who has been confined to his home by sickness for several weeks, is again able to be out.

Dr. David Humphrey, who has been at the North Carolina Medical College in Charlotte, during the Winter, is spending some time at the home of his parents on Saddle Tree.

Mr. and Mrs. James Arnette of East Arcadia, who had been to Raleigh, stopped over here Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Thad W. Bullock.

Of the 114 North Carolinians who are in the American fleet bound for the Pacific coast, are three Robesonians, Edward F. Hooper, Lumberton; J. P. Hancock, Parkton, and Charles Walker, Rowland. Hooper is a native of Lumberton, being a son of "Uncle" William Hooper, one of the oldest and most highly respected colored men of this section.

The new court house troubles having been adjusted, work has been resumed, and good progress is being made.

—Mrs. George Harriss returned yesterday from a very pleasant visit of a week or ten days in Baltimore. Dr. and Mrs. Andrew H Harriss will return the first of this week.

NOW FOR THE STRAWBERRY.

Requisition for Seven Cars at Chadbourn Yesterday—Shipments.

There was requisition for seven refrigerator cars for strawberry shipments from the Chadbourn section yesterday while several hundred crates went by express from the several points along the Wilmington and Weldon railroad during the day. Twenty cars are requisitioned for Monday at Chadbourn and it is expected that before the end of the week the daily movement will amount to over a hundred cars from the belt. The first of the fruit appeared on the local market yesterday and sold readily at 25 cents per quart by the crate. Thus far enough North Carolina berries have not been shipped North to make a market there, but the outlook is said to be very good indeed. Shipping Agent Bauman and his assistants will take up their abode at the junction office at South Rocky Mount early this week, while the Association agents are already leaving for the several markets north where the bulk of the North Carolina berries are handled.

HIS VIEWS ON CURRENCY

Prominent Wilmington Banker Invited to Appear Before Committee.

It is a high compliment to the gentleman personally, the city of Wilmington particularly and the Southern banking interests generally, that is paid by Chairman Charles N. Fowler, of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, in an invitation to Mr. H. C. McQueen, president of the Murchison National Bank of this city, to come to Washington on Monday or Tuesday of this week for the purpose of giving his views on the Aldrich currency bill which is now pending in Congress and which has engaged some of the best thought of the country. The invitation came to Mr. McQueen yesterday and he will be in a position to represent the banking interests of the city and State most capably before this committee.

On Sunday, the 26th, Miss Curtis, of Texas, National organizer of the W. C. T. U., will speak here also in support of State prohibition."

AN ERROR OF PROOF READING

J. M. Solky & Co. Overrun With Orders for Special Suits.

The proof reader on the Morning Star, who is accustomed to rock-bottom figures when anything special is offered at the store of J. M. Solky & Co., overstepped the bounds just a little yesterday morning in glancing over the advertisement of the store. As a special J. M. Solky & Co., was offering about seventy-five two-piece suits for men's and youths at $6.25. The figures appeared erroneously at $2.25 per suit and would give an idea that the goods offered were shoddy and inferior, when as a matter of fact nothing is more foreign to the stock carried at this store. The price, of course, is $6.25 and they are cheaper at that price than many suits would be even at the ridiculously low price at which they were inadvertently advertised. Warm weather goods for Easter are now being offered at this store and Messrs. Solky & Co., invite an inspection of their special offerings for the season.

CONCERT AT LUMINA.

The shipment of Springfield rifles to the State Guard is held up awaiting the arrival of ammunition, which will be forwarded at the same time.

Paul Young Released.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer has the following: "The white man, Paul Young, who was sent to jail Thursday in default of a $300 bond required of him for alleged vagrancy, was released from custody yesterday by putting up a $100 bond, the reduction being ordered by Recorder Smith upon supplication from Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick, counsel for the defendant. Young was able to put up a cash bond to this amount, for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

DR. N. M. CULBRETH

Testimonial to His Worth by Member of His Profession.

(Communicated.)

Editor Star: Will you be kind enough to allow me sufficient space in your paper to express my regret at the loss, by removal, of one of our most prominent dentists and a valued citizen.

I, together with a host of Dr. N. M. Culbreth's friends, read with much regret the announcement in your paper a few days ago that he had decided to leave Wilmington. I have known Dr. Culbreth for a quarter of a century and have known him intimately for the eleven years he has been a resident of our city, and therefore, have been in a position not only to appreciate his valuable friendship, but also to observe in a marked degree, the high character of the professional man which his ethical and professional attainments make him. Possibly, I regret his leaving more keenly on account of my professional intimacy with him because I appreciated his skill and judgment as a dental surgeon and profited by it. In this particular I wish to say that during my ten years membership of the (North Carolina) State Board of Dental Examiners, I was thrown not only with the leading dentists of our own State, but also with some of the most prominent dentists of other States, and I do not hesitate to say that in point of practical experience and skilled manipulation, he is the peer of any of his professional contemporaries.

Now that he is soon to go from among us, I wish to say that that which more than anything else prompted me to ask this courtesy of you, is my appreciation of him as a true man. In all of my professional and social intercourse with Dr. Culbreth, it gives me great pleasure to say that he always acted the part of one whose virtues are many, morals clean and integrity unsmirched by the faintest suspicion of doubt.

Thanking you in advance for your kindness, I am yours truly,

J. H. DURHAM, M. D., D. D. S.

BIG WIND IN THE NORTH

Gale in New York City Killed One And Injured a Dozen—Philadelphia Also Suffers From the Terrific Hurricane.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 11.—A man was killed and dozens of persons were injured on the streets of New York by a fierce wind storm which swooped down on the city this afternoon and lasted several hours. The gale blew at the rate of from 50 to 60 miles an hour. Besides the danger from falling objects, pedestrians experienced much discomfort.

John O'Brien, an expressman, of Jersey City, was the man who met death. An iron shutter, broken loose from its hinges by the wind struck him on the head in a down town street inflicting injuries which caused his death shortly afterwards.

Incoming shipping reports heavy weather at sea. The steamer LaToraine, of the French line, which came in from Havre, reported a tempestuous voyage. Few ships ventured to sea this afternoon in the face of the gale.

The local weather men said the high wind was due to the steep barometric pressure between two rain storms, one on the coast and the other central over the St. Lawrence Valley. A low area of pressure was suddenly displaced by a high area of pressure and this caused the high winds. Following the high winds there was a fall in the temperature of from 63 early this afternoon to 46 at 8 o'clock tonight. Later it fell still further.

One Dead, Several Injured.

Philadelphia, April 11.—The city and vicinity was visited by a heavy wind storm today which caused the death of one person and the injury of several others. In this city a number of persons were struck by falling signs but none was seriously injured.

A sail boat was overturned by the wind in the Delaware river a few miles above this city and its three occupants thrown into the water. Before they could be rescued William Shatterton, aged 30 years, became unconscious from exposure and died shortly after being brought to land. George Satterton and Lewis Geisler, the other occupants of the boat also suffered from exposure and are in a hospital in Camden, N. J., in a serious condition. Owing to the wind it required about half an hour for a party of rescuers who set out in a boat, to reach the distressed men and bring them back.

ANNA GOULD SAILS.

She Leaves On One Ship And Prince Sagan On Another.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 11.—Mme Anna Gould, with her children and their tutor, sailed for Genoa and Naples today on board the North German Lloyd steamer, Frederick der Grosse. About the same hour the Prince de Sagan sailed for Europe on the American Line steamer St. Paul.

Mme Gould and her children passed the night on board the steamer. She was registered on the passenger list of the steamer as Miss Annetta Chapin. The Gould party arrived at the pier about midnight last night in five automobiles.

Mme Gould was accompanied to the steamer by the Prince deSagan and Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse, her friends, whom she had been visiting at the hotel St. Regis. The sailing party was assigned to the captain's suite on the upper deck and the Prince de Sagan and Mr. and Mrs. Morse remained only long enough to bid them farewell.

The Prince de Sagan was regist ered on the steamer St. Paul, as E. D. Hodges.

Referring to a report that Prince Helie de Sagan and Mme Gould has been married in Jersey City last night, Edwin A. Jones who has been acting as counsel for Mme Gould said:

"The Prince and Mme Gould are not married and not engaged, but no man can tell what will happen in the future."

The Prince talked freely with newspaper men while waiting for his steamer to sail. He was asked if the report was true that he and Mme Gould have been secretly married.

"No, no, it is not true" he replied and added: "The relations of Mme Gould and myself are the same today as the day I arrived here. At that time there was an understanding between us. There is the same understanding between us now that there was then."

Representative William Sulzer, of New York, was the guest and principal speaker at the Dollar Dinner given by the Democratic Society of Western New York at the Ellicott club in New York yesterday. A resolution was adopted recording the society in favor of the nomination of William J. Bryan for the Presidency and urging the Democratic State convention of New York to instruct its National delegates to vote hom him first, last and all the time.

Fashion and Fat.

Isn't it fortunate that when fashion demands slender gracefulness of women who have to break corset laces to make themselves even presentable that science steps in and makes their task easy?

For dieting and exercising it has substituted a pleasant wholesome mixture that can be obtained at small cost from any druggist, viz.: 1-2 ounce Marmola, 1-2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3 1-2 ounces Syrup Simplex.

One teaspoonful of this mixture after meals and at bedtime will take off four to seven pounds of fat a week without causing wrinkles, interfering with the diet, or distressing the stomach in the slightest.

BASE BALL

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 11.—Carolina had the tables turned on her here today by Dartmouth, score 9 to 2. The visitors showed marked improvement over yesterday's playing and batted well. Carolina failed to make connection with the ball to advantage and the team was rather lifeless all around. Stewart and Duls pitched for Carolina while Glaze did the stunt for the visitor. Carolina made but three hits and was credited with seven errors. Dartmouth connected with the sphere 11 times and made but a single error. Thereby hangs the tale of Carolina's downfall. FEAR ANOTHER OUTBREAK.

Business at Pensacola, Fla., is Demoralized Because of Strike.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pensacola, Fla., April 11.—Since last night's disturbance there has been no outbreak in the street railway men's strike. The situation, however, continues tense and there is fear of an outbreak at any moment.

All business in the city is demoralized and troops may be needed to take charge of the situation. The electric company is firm in its refusal to arbitrate and the strikers are just as equally determined to prevent further operation of the cars.

The mayor and city council held a meeting at 4 o'clock this morning and again this afternoon but did not come to any definite conclusion. The strike breakers who sought the protection of the city jail last night are still quartered there.

A rumor was circulated today that the strikers would attempt to take the imported men from the jail and a hurried call summoned police officers from all portions of the city. A cordon was thrown around the jail and no one was allowed beyond this line.

NAVAL STORES MEN ARRESTED

Indictments are Found Against Members of Trust by Grand Jury.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., April 11.—Indictments were returned by the Federal grand jury today against the alleged "Naval Stores Trust."

The American Naval Stores Company and the National Transportation and Terminal company were indicted jointly with S. P. Shotter, chairman of the board of the American Naval Stores Company; Edmund M. Nash, president; J. F. C. Myers, vice president; C. J. DeLoach, secretary; George Meade Boardman, treasurer, and Karl Moltor, manager of the Jacksonville office of the company.

Four of the defendants were arrested and gave bond in the sum of $5,000 each. The others are not in the city.

One bill was returned making three counts. These were under the first two sections of the Sherman anti-trust law. The first count charges combining and conspiring to monopolize trade and the third, monopolizing and attempting to monopolize trade.

Steamer Wilmington Overhauling.

The steamer Wilmington is now on the ways for her annual overhauling and will be off the ways in a few days as bright as a new pin, ready for her Summer excursion and regular Carolina Beach travel. On this account there will be no trip to Southport and out to sea today, but next Sunday she will be in full commission. Capt. Harper has made arrangements for a most convenient schedule to Carolina Beach this season and the travel will be large.

No Truth in the Report.

There has been a persistent report in the city for a day or two that the Tidewater Power Company was contemplating an increase in the passenger rate to the beach to 40 cents for the round trip. It was learned yesterday that there is absolutely no foundation for the rumor and that so far as the company is considering an increase in the rate, it is devising ways and means by which the rate can be reduced at the earliest possible moment.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained a distinguished company at dinner at the White House last night. The guests included Baron Rosen, the Russian ambassador; Secretary Metcalf; Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Bacon; Representatives and Mrs. Longworth; Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. James, Lieut. Commander and Madame DeBlanpre, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, Madame DeMare and VanSwinderen, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Ward, Major and Mrs. W. Austin Wadsworth, Mrs. Wallingford, Mrs. Lowndes, Mr. Von Stumm and Captain Sherwood A. Chenney.

The Theatre

The managers of the Crystal Palace announce that they will have one of the best bills for the week beginning Monday, that they have ever presented.

The bill will be composed of some of the best acts that are playing the Southern vaudeville houses, and are booked to the Palace by the Independent Vaudeville Agency, a new vaudeville agency recently formed by Messrs. VanDuzen Bros., the managers of the Palace. They have formed an independent circuit, and are at present booking six other vaudeville houses besides their own. One of the feature acts will be that of Sullivan Younger, who is featuring a child musician. The Pepper Twins will present a singing and dancing act that is entirely out of the ordinary, and the first one of its kind ever presented in Wilmington. Mr. Richard J. Voight, a tenor singer who is absolutely one of the highest priced single acts in the South, has also been secured for this week. Then last, but not least, Elliotte and LeRoy, the clever comedy team that has proven so popular for the past two weeks. This team has proven to be the most versatile even seen in Wilmington, and they will present two entirely new acts this week. One of the acts will be seen for the first time, as it was received by Mr. Elliotte this past week direct from one of the most noted comedy sketch writers in New York City.

The popular Nixon Orchestra has prepared an extra fine musical programme especially for Holy Week, which will add to the enjoyment of the programme.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Sunday Afternoon Meeting—Bible Study Club—Field Day.

The men of the city and especially those of the southern section are invited to hear Dr. Hale at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the service for men under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at Southside Baptist Church. He will speak upon a subject of interest to young men especially and all are invited to attend.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock the Bible Study Club will be addressed by Inter-State Secretary G. C. Huntington, who has lately been making a tour of the Bible Study clubs of the Carolinas and will have an interesting message for the young men engaged in this work in Wilmington. A full attendance of the class is especially desired.

There was a very interesting meeting of local athletes at the Association last night and it was decided to have the field day, previously announced, early in May. All young men interested in any form of athletics that would contribute to the programme now being prepared are invited to send their names to the Assistant Secretary, Mr. Hatch.

RENDER "THE CRUCIFIXION."

Saint James' Choir Has Musical Treat in Store for Public.

On Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, in Saint James' church the choir of the parish, which has contributed so greatly towards raising the standard of music in this city, will render Sir John Steamer's masterful composition. "The Crucifixion," which has stamped him as the most sublime exponent of sacred music living and in which he has exceeded all former efforts. No one can sit under its hearing without being convinced that he was certainly inspired in its writing. So sublime and majestic is its tread that one's thoughts can but turn instinctively to the scene which inspired it and hear, in music, the majestic story of the Cross. It is the desire that the congregation be seated before its commencement as no one will be allowed to interrupt the service afterwards.

STEAMER ATLANTIC SOLD.

Brunswick, Ga., Man Buys Wilmington and Southport Boat.

It was learned yesterday from an authentic source that the steamer Atlantic, belonging to a stock company at Wilmington and Southport and operated as a freight and passenger boat between these points, has been sold to Mr. B. A. White, Jr., of Brunswick, Ga. for a consideration of $17,000 and will be used by the new owner on the Satilla river. The sale, it is understood, was consummated here yesterday by Mr. White and President J. J. Loughlin and General Manager Fred Furpless, of the company now owning the steamer. The sale is conditioned upon an examination by Mr. White's engineer, who will be here on Monday to look over the boat, and it is expected that she will be taken to her new home port during the week.

Lumber Bridge Armory.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says: "The contract was let last night for the armory at Lumber Bridge. It will be a two-story brick structure, which will cost about four thousand dollars. This will be the first brick building in this thriving little town.

"Mr. H. C. Vistal, of Siler City, has the contract, and will begin at once the erection of the structure."

Sometimes fat men have a hard time getting clothes that fit; so do very tall, thin men; so do several other odd sized fellows—chunky little "shortys," or very slender, boyish figures. Such men often say: "Ready-made clothes wont do for me."

If you're that kind of a man—any of those kinds—we'll surprise you with our Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; we'll fit you better than you're used to, no matter who makes your clothes; we'll do it for less money than you think possible, and you'll get the Hart Schaffner & Marx all-wool quality; best clothes you ever saw, or wore.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Kinston, April 10.—Mr. J. J. Bizzell has been elected assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Kinston. He has been with this bank since its organization.

—Scotland Neck, April 10.—Two days ago a valuable horse belonging to Mr. R. E. Hancock, while playing in a lot, ran into a fence and broke his neck.

—Scotland Neck. April 10.—The Halifax county branch of the Southern Cotton Association held a meeting this week at Halifax and advised a curtailment of the cotton acreage when practical, and certainly no increase at all.

—Fountain, April 10.—Mr. Jesse Galloway had two of his toes almost cut off a few days ago while chopping with an axe. The physician thinks he can save them, but it will require 12 months before Mr. Galloway will be able to walk around or do much manual labor.

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. R. R. Redwine, of the Monroe bar, brought his young son to St. Peter's Hospital yesterday, the little fellow having suffered a serious fracture of his skull by being kicked by a horse. The condition of his son is sufficiently critical to cause the family much concern.

—Weldon, April 10.—As a result of a misunderstanding of orders a wreck occurred between Weldon and Boling, in which an engine was badly damaged and an engineer and fireman were painfully bruised. The helper from here had helped a freight to Summit and was returning when it ran into the front of a southbound train.

—Durham, April 10.—The contract for the building of the new Watts Hospital has been awarded to John T. Wilson, of Richmond, after strong competition in which eight contractors had made their bids. The first cost of this magnificent sanatarium will approach $200,000. The work will begin May 1st.

—High Point, April 10.—Mrs. J. E. Thompson, wife of the pastor of Washington Street M. E. Church, dropped dead this morning at eleven while sitting on the front porch of the parsonage. Mr. Thompson was up street at the time and only the cook was at the house when the summons came. Deceased leaves two daughters, one of whom is in Asheville and her husband. She was a South Carolinian.

—Newbern Daily Journal: Mr. Clifford Moore, an employe of J. M. Register, at his wood turning establishment at Clarks, suffered a painful accident yesterday. He was working on a Ball planer when the piece of timber slightly turned and his left hand was brought in contact with the knives, entirely severing the two middle fingers and cutting the index and little fingers badly. It is thought however, that the latter can be saved.

—Rocky Mount, April 10.—Russell Williams, the 17-year-old son of ex-Deputy Sheriff James Williams, of Nash county, met a violent death in a runaway near his home at Hilliardston, Nash county. The young man was hauling fertilizer from the railroad station to his home, when his team got unmanageable and ran away. He was thrown from the wagon against a tree and his skull was crushed, causing instant death.

—Washington, April 10.—R. W. Bishop, patent attorney, reports the issue of the following patents on the 7th instant to residents of North Carolina: Vehicle gear, C. A. Behlen, Durham, assignor to Durham Buggy Company, same place; spark arrester, J. E. Dempster, Mayodan, assignor of one-half to C. V. Pegram, Walkertown; shingle sawing machine, J. G. Pike, Siler City; garment supporter, Bessie M. Richardson, Waxhaw; smoke conveyer, R. L. Rhodes, Kinston, assignor of one-half to G. B. Webb, same place.

—Elizabeth City, April 10.—One of the most spectacular fires to occur here recently was the burning of the Good Samaritan hall on Lawrence street last night. When the fire alarm was turned in the fire had already gained control of the building, which was a large two-story frame structure, and one of the oldest buildings in the city. The building and contents, consisting chiefly of lodge paraphernalia, were owned by the North Star Lodge, a colored organization. Members of the lodge had been in the building earlier in the night decorating the interior for entertainment purposes.

—Greensboro, April 10.—With the conviction this morning of Jim Smith by a jury in the Federal court of illicit distilling, the last one of the "Smithtown big guns" of internal revenue violations becomes a candidate for the penitentiary and of Judge Boyd's leniency. Yesterday afternoon John Hill was convicted of illicit distilling, and Oscar Sisk did not venture trial. He plead guilty. The day before, Fletcher Smith, a brother to Jim, was convicted of retailing and Joe Bateman, a prominent Smithtown blockader, shared the fate of being convicted of illicit distilling by the jury.

—Rocky Mount, April 10.—An unusual case of trespass was tried before 'Squire Harris, Tuesday, in which the defendant is a young man who works at the A. C. L. shops at South Rocky Mount, and the trespass consisted in his going to the home of his sweetheart after being forbidden by the father, who objected to his suit for the young lady's hand. Mr. B. F. Weaver, father of the young lady, was prosecutor and the defendant was Willie Joyner. There was no bitterness on the part of the prsecutor, the action being brought in the court rather to show the ardent young suitor that he must respect the father's wishes in the matter. Judgment was suspended on the payment of the cost, but the young man was warned that a fine of $25 would be imposed if he repeated his visit.

Sale of Land for Taxes.

Take notice that I have levied upon, and will sell at public auction, at the Court House door of the County of New Hanover, on Monday, the 4th day of May, 1908, at 12 o'clock noon, the following described real estate, to satisfy the unpaid taxes due the City of Wilmington, North Carolina, for the year 1907, together with the costs and expenses due thereon.

Sale of Property for Non-Payment of Assessments.

In pursuance of the power and directions contained in Chapter 4, Section 6, of the Private Laws of 1905 of the General Assembly of North Carolina, default having been made in the payment of assessments levied by the City of Wilmington, N. C., against the property hereinafter described, I will offer for sale on Monday, May 4th, 1908, at the Court House

HORNE, the PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE For GOVERNOR

The Man to Secure Harmony and Unity to the Party and Bring Victory---the Man Who Will Be Governor and Nothing More.

A Business Man and Farmer Who Knows By Experience the Needs of the Laboring Man. Non-Professional Men Have Had Almost None of the High Offices Within the Gift of the Party. Whenever Given an Opportunity They Have Made Good.

HORNE AND HARMONY ARE NEEDED NOW!

An Enthusiastic Ashley Horne Club Has Been Formed at Durham, With a Charter Membership of Something Over One Hundred Democrats. That This Club Is Enthusiastic and Means Business Is Evidenced By the Letter Which It Is Sending Out, Which Reads as Follows:

Durham, N. C., March 21, 1908.

We, the undersigned members of the Ashley Horne Democratic Club of Durham County, feel moved to call upon the voters of the State of North Carolina to support the Hon. Ashley Horne for the nomination for the Governorship in the approaching Democratic State Convention, for the following reasons:

First. He was a brave Confederate soldier. During four years of bloody war, bravely and loyally he followed "Mars Robert," and WALKED HOME FROM APPOMATTOX BAREFOOTED.

Second. When this Commonwealth was buried in gloom of war and shrouded in the desolation of defeat, it was Ashley Horne and his comrades that blazed the way out of the wilderness of bitter days and the slough of despondency, and set her upon her feet.

Third. Faithful in war, faithful in peace; his ear has never been dull when his State needed the services of his good right arm.

Fourth. A Democrat without apology and without guile, he has always led the Vanguard in his section when the Democratic party needed a Standard Bearer.

Fifth. These times demand a BUSINESS MAN for Governor. Nominate Ashley Horne for Governor and we guarantee a four years' administration in which the business interests of the State will be duly fostered, conserved and protected. Help us to inaugurate a Business Man's administration.

No man, from the Gulf of Mexico to the Potomac, sustains a higher character;—no man's name has higher credit in the markets of the world;—no man's name is a greater token for honor and fidelity;—no man's name stands out more prominently for a "square deal" than does Ashley Horne's. Hence our appeal to the business world to support Ashley Horne.

Sixth. Without cant or hypocrisy, he has been a sober, moral, hightoned, honest man.

Seventh. He represents no faction. He has no "machine." He is a member of no "combine." He is a plain man and asks the support of the plain people. If elected he will be the People's Governor, with no machine to keep in order, no combine to tie his hands.

Eighth. If elected, he will be Governor, and he will not use that great office as a stepping stone to something higher. He will perform the duties of that office to the best of his ability and at the end of his term reurn to private life.

Ninth. He is a Prosperity Promoter.

Tenth. He was a private in Lee's army. He carried a musket. Probably this is your last chance to vote for a Confederate soldier for Governor.

He has been a big success in the management of his own affairs. Make him oGvernor and give him an opportunity of applying fine business sense to the management of our State affairs.

A Farmers', Laborers' and Business Men's Candidate

We appeal to the FARMERS to support Ashley Horne—to make him their candidate. Coming out of the war without a dollar, he now owns much land and is the biggest farmer in Johnson County. He knows the farmer's life and his needs, and is pre-eminently the farmer's friend. Now is the opportunity to make a successful farmer a successful Governor of North Carolina. THE FARMERS OWE IT TO THEMSELVES TO SUPPORT ASHLEY HORNE.

We appeal to the MERCHANTS to support Ashley Horne. Beginning with only a pittance, today he stands at the head of the line, and at his side door, perhaps, more bags of cotton are bought and paid for than at any store in North Carolina.

We appeal to the MANUFACTURERS to support Ashley Horne. In these days of stress of idle men and idle factories, but few, if any, men are furnishing employment to more labor than does Ashley Horne, in the cotton factories, fertilizer factories, and the various other industries with which he is associated.

We appeal to BANKERS to support Ashley Horne—President of one bank and Director of several others, no line of bankinfi institutions in the State stands higher or has more assets in character, (the influence that pays dividends these panicky times), than the Banks with which Ashley Horne is connected.

A man of clean life;—a friend to education;—a friend to the Eleemosynary Institutions of the State;—a friend to the poor;—a friends to his fellow man;—one who deserves the confidence and love of every man, woman and child in North Carolina; we call upon every man who can vote to show his appreciation of his great worth and great work, and support first, last and all the time, Ashley Horne for Governor.

JULIAN S. CARR, President Ashley Horne Democratic Club;
W. A. ERWIN, 1st Vice-President;
JAMES R. BLACKNALL, 2nd Vice-President;
C. D. PARTIN, 3rd Vice President;
R. T. FAUCETT, Secretary;
W. H. McCABE, Corresponding Secretary.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH

Correspondent Writes Interestingly and With Understanding of This Important Branch of the National Government.

(Communicated.)

The writer who has been for nearly a life time in a position to note with increasing interest the steady progress of our port from its unhappy condition in the early fifties, when it was stigmatized as the "sailor's grave" to its present position as the healthiest of South Atlantic seaports, respectfully asks that you will publicly recognize the notable means to which we are chiefly, if not wholly indebted for this remarkable and gratifying change in our mortuary statistics. I allude to the splendidly equipped, thoroughly organized and disciplined corps of trained officers in the public health and Marine Hospital Service, the functions of which have been enlarged so often in response to the growing demand for more active participation by the Government in the prevention of diseases, that it is necessary, says the New York Medical Journal of April 4th, to provide from time to time by legislation, the authority and facilities required by the Service to meet its new responsibilities.

In order that our inhabitants may be informed of the great value of this protective arm of the Federal Government, for the prevention of disease in Wilmington, the following brief memorandum relating to the Responsibilities, Duties and Activities of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, with relation to the State of North Carolina, is given as an index of its far-reaching usefulness.

1. Making physical examinations of men of the Life Saving Service, both when entering that service and also annually thereafter.

2. Treating sick seamen from lightships, and also from the boats and dredges of the U. S. Engineers' Department on the river, free of charge.

3. Treating all sick seamen of the U. S. merchant marine at the various ports of entry free of charge; and foreign seamen, at a nominal charge, when so requested by consular authorities.

4. Making physical examinations of officers and enlisted men on the Revenue Cutters, and also treating those who fall sick.

5. Examining all pilots as to their vision and their color sense and so preventing accidents by keeping color-blind men from attempting to follow such a calling.

6. Maintaining a well equipped quarantine station at the mouth of the river to prevent the introduction of quarantinable disease into the State.

7. To speak generally of other matters this service is a Public Health Service, possessing a well organized corps of medical men who have had both training and experience in quarantine, epidemic and public health work, and who have on occasion proven their ability to meet emergencies incident to such work (as for example the yellow fever epidemic in the South in 1901 and the present work in bubonic plague in the West). In the possession of such a service the United States stands ready always to meet epidemics and similar public health emergencies in any part of its territory.

This service also systematically collects and publishes valuable information relating to the world's health, especially with regard to epidemic diseases; its Bureau, through proper channels, arranges for conferences with foreign powers as well as with State health officials regarding the public health; through its well equipped laboratory and in other ways it makes investigations into various matters relating to the public health and disseminates information about the same (witness its recent publication on the question of Milk in Its Relation to Public Health); finally this service has proven its ability in public health matters, gained the confidence of the public and enjoys the respect and admiration of the medical profession.

It will doubtless further interest our people to read the following letter addressed on yesterday by official representatives of our city and port, to Senator Simmons at Washington with reference to two important measures before Congress for the greater usefulness of this excellent and beneficent provision of an enlightened and progressive government, exemplified in the devoted person and service of Dr. Claude H. Lavinder, in comamnd of this station.

"We respectfully ask on behalf of the City and Port of Wilmington your interest in and support of a bill by Mr. Hepburn, 'To promote the efficiency of the public health and marine hospital service, and again, to Further Protect the Public Health and Impose Additional Duties upon the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service' if our views with reference to them meet with your approval.

"We have been so intimately connected with the work of the Marine Hospital Service at this port for the past 21 years, particularly with regard to the care of sailors, and in the laboratory examinations into infectious diseases, that we are aware of the great value of this important arm of the Federal Government for the protection of our ports against disease and for the investigation of technical matters affecting public health.

It is well known that the admirable services rendered by this Department, in recommending methods necessary for the prevention and suppression of tuberculosis, yellow fever, typhoid fever and other diseases, has not only largely decreased the rate of mortality at our sea ports, but has also been a great aid to the medical profession, too busily engaged with their routine duty to enter into the technical examinations which the Marine Hospital Service has so effectively accomplished.

"We trust that you may see your way to sustain the arguments in favor of these bills as a measure of beneficence to our people at large, and particularly to those more exposed to infection at maritime ports, and, as of great benefit to the whole human race in the line of scientific investigation for the protection of life and property.

The bill to Promote the Efficiency of Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, designated H. R. 18794, seems to us to be most reasonable in its provisions, and the bill H. R. 18792, is of greater importance as its caption 'To Further Protect the Public Health' imposing additional duties upon the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, indicates. J. S.

NESBITT APPROVES PLAN

He Says the New System Makes Less Bookkeeping, Thereby Permitting Lower Rates To Be Put Into Effect.

W. D. Nesbitt, associate railroad commissioner of Alabama, urges the traveling public to co-operate with the railroads in putting into effect their mileage book system.

"I note considerable criticism in the papers of the plan the railroads have adopted in putting on sale their 1,000 and 2,000-mile, 2-cent, interchangeable tickets," said Mr. Nesbitt.

"There seems to be complaint on account of the fact that these tickets have to be exchanged at the ticket offices for the regular card tickets, and are not accepted by train conductors except from stations where regular tickets are not on sale.

"Without a full understanding of the situation this requirement of the railroads might be considered arbitrary and unnecessary. As a matter of fact, however, the requirement is one made in order to save expense in the bookkeeping and accounting departments of the railroads. Where the mileage strips are taken by conductors on the trains from books sold by one road and good on several roads special reports have to be made by the conductors on account of this mileage, and special settlements made between the railroads. Under the plan adopted by the railroads this mileage comes only through the regular ticket offices and hence requires a much simpler form of accounting and bookkeeping, and reduces the clerical force necessary to handle the business. It also reduces the possibility of error by conductors in tearing mileage and enables them to handle their passengers much more expeditiously, and, therefore, gives them more time for attention to the running of their trains.

"The public should, by as much co-operation as possible, encourage the railroads to establish these cheaper rates, and realize that if we are to have reasonable rates and good service, every unnecessary expense and waste must be cut off. Every time an unnecessary expense is removed the net returns to the railroad is increased, and, therefore, the smaller the gross charge which it is necessary for them to make in order to get a reasonable return upon their investments.

"Buying these 1,000 and 2,000-mile tickets, as compared with the purchase of ordinary fares, is just like buying wholesale and retail. The man who buys wholesale gets it at a cheaper price, but has to get delivery in large quantities and in a less expensive way than the man who is buying retail. For instance, the man who is willing to buy a crate of eggs and send to the depot and get them, pays probably 13 to 14 cents per dozen, while the man buying a single dozen and asking the grocer to deliver them at his house will likely pay 25 to 30 cents per dozen.

"The cheap tickets offer transportation at wholesale rates if one is willing to use this transportation in such a way as will enable the railroads to reduce the expense of delivering it."—From Age-Herald, Birmingham, Ala., April 3, 1908.

Puzzling Measures.

Wheat is sold in Great Britain in twenty different ways—by the quarter, comb, load, boll, bushel, barrel, hundredweight, cental, windle and bobbet. Further confusion is also caused by the fact that the bushel of wheat varies from sixty-two pounds at Birmingham, Gloucester and Taunton, to eighty pounds at Monmouth and Abergavenny, while at Aberystwyth it is sixty-five pounds. Similiarly, the boll weighs three imperial bushels at Newcastle, four throughout Scotland, six at Berwick, 264 pounds at Glasgow and 240 pounds at Hamilton. A quarter measures 496 pounds in country districts and 504 pounds in London.—London Milling.

Unique Advertising.

A tale is told of Robert Bonner and of his belief in advertising. One day he engaged a whole page of a newspaper and repeated a two line advertisement upon it over and over again. It must have been repeated 5,000 times upon the page in the smallest type.

"Why do you waste your money, Robert?" asked a friend. "I noticed that same line so often. Would not half a page have answered your purpose?"

"Half a page would never have caused you to ask the question," replied Mr. Bonner. "At least five people will ask that to every line was the way I figured it."

Awful Effects.

Acrid Ike—Dey say dat steady drippin' o' water'll wear away a stone. Dreamy Pete—Jes' t'ink, den, wot'd happen t' a man's stomach by pourin' glassfuls inter it.—Bohemian.

Quite Useful.

"She has a very useful husband."

"How do you make that out?"

"He can always suggest something that he wants for dinner."—Detroit Free Press.

An Advantage of Fastidious Smoking.

[Original.]

I was traveling in France in a railway train shut up in a compartment with but one person besides myself, a woman. I am an inveterate smoker, and it occurred to me that perhaps the lady would not object to my lighting a cigar. I asked her permission, she assented graciously, and, taking one from my cigar case, I lighted it. It was a long cigar, pointed at both ends, and remarkably well made. I mention this because if it had been loosely wrapped probably there would be nothing of especial interest in this story. As I began to puff composedly I drew from my pocket a morning paper and commenced to read.

"I envy you your solace, monsieur," the lady remarked. "Traveling is dull, and we women have no such way of passing the time."

I lowered my paper and for the first time took a look at her. She was passably good looking, comparatively young and very well dressed. Since she had been so good as to permit me to smoke I considered it only fair that I should take her hint and relieve her ennui by chatting with her. I was aware that the day of making acquaintances in this way even in America had passed, and even there it had never been usual for the woman to take the initiative, but my companion looked bored, and I attributed her desire simply to be temporarily amused.

I tested her on different topics and soon found that she was most interested in pleasures—exciting pleasures, such as the theater and the race course. She preferred, however, to talk of novels and evinced an especial interest in those of Emile Zola. Indeed, she conversed about the characters in those unconventional romances with a freedom that arrested my attention. And it seemed to me that the more unconventional the characters the better she liked them. Finally, taking the latest of Zola's stories published from her traveling bag, she opened it at a certain page and asked me to sit beside her and read a passage, giving as an excuse for not doing so herself that she was a very poor reader.

"Pardon me," I said. "I am smoking. The fumes would be unpleasant to you."

"Not at all. I love them."

"But," I protested, "you see that the ash on my cigar is very long. If I should move it would fall. Now, I am fastidious about my smoking, I love a freshly lighted cigar, and so long as the ash remains in its place the cigar seems as it was at the first touch of the match. Indeed, it tastes the same. But once knock off the ash and the cigar is but a stump, the smoke gets in my eyes and—well, it is not the same by any means."

To tell the truth, this was but an excuse. I had come to suspect the lady to be an adventuress and did not look with complacency upon being shut up alone with her. She seemed to discern from my refusal to sit by her that I had my suspicions and, instead of attempting to allay them, began to work upon my fears.

"A man who scorns a lady's advances should be made to pay for his rudeness," she said sharply.

I considered this a threat, and to display an unconcern I did not feel I resumed my paper. Indeed, there was nothing else for me to do. I felt sure that the woman would spring a trap on me for the purpose of extorting blackmail, and I saw before me a serious complication, a possible arrest and imprisonment. But the more inward trepidation I felt the more outward coolness I showed. I concentrated my attention upon maintaining the ash on the end of my cigar. Every time I removed the cigar from between my lips and put it back I did so with the utmost care. Presently the woman took out her watch and looked at it.

"We will reach the station at N. in five minutes," she said. "I need 500 francs. Choose between giving them to me or an arrest on a charge of assault when the train stops."

Had she been willing to settle for a napoleon I would not have yielded. I consider it demeaning in any man to pay blackmail. It may or may not be common sense, but I do not believe in making a beginning in that direction. I gave the woman no reply, but continued to appear interested in keeping the ash on the end of my cigar.

Finally the houses by the way grew thicker, and the train slowed down.

"I'll settle for 1,000 francs," said the woman. "In one minute more my price will be 1,500." At the same time she began to pull her apparel awry to indicate that she had been through a struggle.

I smoked on.

In another minute the train pulled up at the station. The woman put her head out of the window and shrieked for the guard. He came, followed by officials and curious people, and drew open the door.

"This brute has assaulted me," said the woman. "Arrest him."

The guard and his followers all leveled their eyes at me. Taking what little remained of my cigar from my mouth, I extended it slowly toward the crowd on the platform.

"Could a man," I said, "interfere with any one and keep an ash like that on the end of a cigar?"

As I spoke the woman, upon whom flashed the reverse of the situation she had planned, brushed against me, slightly shaking me. The ash fell on the car floor.

There was a shout of derisive laughter at the woman, whose position was made the more absurd by the condition of her clothing.

Her experiment cost her a term in prison. NELSON MAXWELL.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 11.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 7 points in response to lower cables and during the early session sold about 6 to 8 points net lower under liquidation which was encouraged by good weather disappointing week end figures and talk of further curtailments in manufacturing circles. Wall street bought early but selling was more or less general. The market closed barely steady with prices net, 7 to 10 points lower.

Receipts at the ports today, 12,265 bales against 14,819 last week and 9,279 last year. For the week, 90,000 against 99,899 last week and 83,695 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 2,073 against 2,253 last year and at Houston, 1,551 against 3,777 last year.

Futures opened steady and closed quiet: American middling, G O C: April 5.23 1-2; April and May 5.21 1-2; May and June 5.21 1-2; June and July 5.21; July and August 5.19; August and September 14 1-2; September and October 5.09; October and November 5.00; November and December 5.02; December and January 5.01 1-2; January and February 5.01.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 11.—The dry goods market relapsed into dullness for the day in nearly all lines. Jobbers closed early and there was little doing in the selling agencies. Dress linens for immediate delivery are in better call and damasks are selling fairly well for immediate and future delivery. Burlaps rule quiet and prices are unchanged. Fine white goods are not in as active call as they were a week ago. On printcloths and heavy cotton goods the market is dull. Yarns are weak and quiet.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 11.—Active interest in stocks today narrowed to the group of securities of the public utilities corporations supplying New York City.

Consolidated Gas was brought into movement by the action on the part of the company to obtain release of the funds tied up in the hands of court out of the charges in excess of 80 cent rate, the enforcement of which has been successfully contested in the courts.

Copper securities suffered from some positive depression on account of the continued decline in the price of the metal. A special explanation advanced today for that decline was the re-sale from China of some speculative holdings of copper bought previously. Discouragement was perceptible over the iron and steel outlook and rumors were reiterated of an intended cut in prices as soon as financial conditions promise resources to the railroads to renew purchases of materials.

The announcement of an intended sale of $20,000,000 out of a $50,000,000 issue of bonds to be authorized by the stock holders of the Delaware and Hudson to fund other indebtedness was regarded as an expression of confidence in the early improvement of the investment situation. The accummulation of the banking surplus explains the increasing ease of the money market and a further advance in sterling exchange rates today showed the resulting tendency to remit to foreign money markets. Some of the speculative bond issues made buoyant advances but the bond division otherwise was dull and steady. Sales par value $2,5000,000. United States 2s registered have declined 1-8 per cent. on call during the week. Sales today 227,400 share.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 11.—Money on call nominal; time loans easy, sixty days 2 1-2 to 2 3-4; ninety days 2 3-4 to 3; six months 3 3-4; prime mercantile paper 4 1-2 to 5; sterling exchange firm, with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8670 to 4.8675 for demand and at 4.8425 to 4.8435 for sixty day bills. Commercial bills 4.84 1-8 to 4.84 1-4. Bar silver 54 1-2; Mexican dollars 47.

CLEARING HOUSE STATEMENT.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 11.—The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $43,285,675 more than the requirements of the per cent. reserve rule. This is an increase of $2,575,375 in the proportionate cash reserve as compared with last week.

The statement follows:

Loans $1,187,411,800, increase $7,033,100.

Deposits $1,225,520,900, increase $11,566,500.

Circulation $59,598,800, decrease $674,400.

Legal tenders $62,501,300, increase $248,600.

Specie $287,144,600, increase $5,219,400.

Reserve $349,645,900, increase $5,467,000.

Reserve requirements $306,380,224, increase $2,891,625.

Surplus $43,265,675, increase $2,575,375.

Excess United States Deposits $54,154,250, increase $2,593,375.

The percentage of actual reserve of the clearing house banks at the close of business yesterday was 28.63.

The statement of banks and trust companies, of Greater New York, not members of the clearing house, shows that these institutions have aggregate deposits of $805,770,300; total cash on hand $57,108,300 and loans amounting to $812,523,200.

MR. HOBSON ON BATTLESHIPS

House Spent Its Time in Discussing The Naval Appropriation Bill.

POSSIBLE WAR WITH JAPAN

Congressman Kitchin of North Carolina Said United States Should Remain as the Exponent of Peace Before the World.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, April 11.—Debate on the naval appropriation bill in the House of Representatives today resolved itself in the main to a discussion of the possibilities of a war between the United States and Japan. In line with his well known views on the subject, Mr. Hobson, of Alabama, pleaded for four battleships instead of two for the next fiscal year and pointed out that from now on the United States should have a fixed policy with regard to naval construction. A war between the yellow and the white races he regarded as inevitable and he asserted that Japan's present military activity was with a view to the supremacy of the Pacific and as a natural consequence there would be a clash at arms with the United States. On the other hand Messrs. Burton, of Ohio and W. W. Kitchin, of North Carolina, disputed that contention, each of them avowing that the clash not only would not come, but that the United States should remain in the forefront of modern civilization as the exponent of peace.

Others who spoke were Messrs. Lilley, Connecticut, who criticised the navy department for maintaining several useless navy yards; Gill, of Maryland, who denounced the President for his treatment of Rear Admiral Brownson; Adison, of Iowa, who advocated the consolidation of several bureaus of the navy department; Loud, Michigan, who favored a naval programme of two battleships a year for ten years; Smith, Texas, who made a general assault on the Republican party; O'Connell, Massachusetts, who declared himself in favor of four battleships, and Ferris, Oklahoma, who condemned the dealings in futures in bucketshops and elsewhere in farm products.

Mr. W. W. Kitchen, North Carolina, opposed the idea of four battleships. In his opinion an immense navy was not essential to the preservation of the Monroe Doctrine because, he said, the United States heretofore had not had such a navy either actually or relatively when measured by the navies of Europe. Should a war come between the Caucasian and yellow races, Mr. Kitchin insisted that there could be no reasonable doubt that the navies of Europe would fight on the side of America. He was no opologist for Japan and yet he said Japan could increase her navy without necessarily having any hostile intentions toward the United States.

President Roosevelt's treatment of Rear Admiral Brownson because of his attitude with regard to the placing of a naval surgeon in charge of the hospital ship Relief, was condemned by Mr. Gill, of Maryland, who charged that the President had repeatedly shown a disregard for the law and performed acts wholly illegal. The country, he declared, should demand administrative respect for the law.

The defects in the bureau system of naval administration were pointed out by Mr. Dawson, of Iowa, who is the author of a bill to reorganize the Navy Department. He quoted from the reports of Secretaries Moody and Long showing that the system of eight separate bureaus, entirely independent of each other, each of which exercised the power of issuing orders which have the full force and effect of orders from the Secretary of the Navy, created a condition in the department which was productive of conflicts and contentions. He said that the public has had many striking instances within the past few years, showing the clashing of interests and authority under this system. He disclaimed any criticism of men or officers.

Mr. Loud, of Michigan, favored a naval programme of two battleships each year for the next ten years.

STANDARD OIL IS OUSTED.

Company is Denied the Right to Do Business in Tennessee.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Nashville, Tenn., April 11.—By the judgment of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, in an exhaustive opinion delivered today by Justice M. M. Neil, the Standard Oil Company is ousted from the State of Tennessee, for the acts of this company at Gallatin, Tenn. in restraining trade. By the judgment of the Supreme Court the Standard Oil Company can only engage in inter-State commerce as far as Tennessee is concerned and the court holds in affirming the decision of Chancellor J. W. Stout, at Gallatin, that in the trial of the case at Gallatin, the Standard Oil Company did violate the provisions of Section of the acts of 1903, chapted 140, and the punishment imposed in Section 2 of that act should be imposed, viz:

"That the Standard Oil Company be denied the right to do business in this State."

The counsel for the company have taken an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

BRITT WAS OUTCLASSED

McFarland Won in the Sixth Round. He Out-Boxed, Out-Punched and Out-Generaled Opponent From the Start.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

San Francisco, April 11.—Packey McFarland, Chicago light weight, whipped "Jimmy" Britt in the sixth round this afternoon in their 20-round pugilistic contest at Solma.

Britt was knocked to the floor three times in the fifth and sixth rounds by powerful right hand blows on the point of the jaw. He took the count of nine twice and after the timekeeper had counted five in third fall Britt's father jumped into the ring and waved McFarland away.

McFarland outclassed Britt from start to finish.

Britt did not seem to guage his blows and displayed much weakness in the clinches and close fighting.

McFarland on the otherhand, had remarkable speed, his judgment of distance was good and he displayed great punching power.

In the first and second rounds, McFarland out-boxed, out-pounced and out-generalled his opponent. During the third, fourth and fifth rounds McFarland administered a succession of powerful right hand buffets on Britt's jaw. Toward the close of the fifth round, a right hand blow to the jaw sent Britt to the mat and only the timely clang of the gong saved him from being counted out.

In the sixth, McFarland struck Britt on the point of the chin and the latter fell like a log. At the count of nine he struggled to his feet, but McFarland was right after him and another right to the same place sent the Californian down.

After the fight Britt said:

"I was clearly beaten. This is the last time I ever will box in a prize ring."

NEW YORK FOR HUGHES.

Republicans in State Convention Instruct Delegates for Governor.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 11.—Governor Chas. E. Hughes was endorsed as New York's candidate for President by the party's convention held today and the four delegates at large, with their alternate selected to the Chicago National Republican convention were instructed to use all honorable arrangements to bring about his nomination. The four delegates at large are General Stewart L. Woodford, ex-Mayor Seth Low of this city, Frederick Hazzard, of Syracuse, and E. H. Butler, of Buffalo.

Premonitions of a turbulent session were felt before the opening of the convention when the Westchester county delegation at a caucus decided to protest against the endorsement of Hughes, by voting against the Hughes resolution and declaring for an uninstructed delegation. This plan was nullified by the unexpected action of Senator Brackett in submitting his minority report. In meeting this situation the majority of the convention adopted the platform by a viva voce vote and the Westchester delegation lost all chance of voting as a delegation against Hughes' endorsement.

Believing that the platform foreshadowed the platform that will be adopted by the Chicago National Republican Convention more than usual interest attached to its recommendations which were confined practically to National issues. The platform endorses in strong terms the administrations of President Roosevelt and Governor Hughes and commends the policies of the Federal administration. A revision of the tariff is favored and the action of Congress in declining to rerise the tariff by piecemeal is endorsed. Changes are advocated in the currency laws to provide a more elastic and satisfactory monetary system.

FLEET IS MOVING

Battleships Started Yesterday On Their Trip to San Francisco.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Sandiego, Cal., April 11.—The Atlantic fleet of sixteen battleships began today its last leg of its original planned cruise from Hampton Roads to the Golden Gate.

The four divisions of the fleet weighed anchor at 4 o'clock this afternoon and three quarters of an hour later were threading their way out of Magdalena Bay in the wake of the flagship Connecticut.

On the flagship was Rear Admiral Charles M. Thomas, who began the journey to the Pacific as head of the second squadron, but who was promoted to chief command during the enforced absence of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans.

An easy journey of 620 miles lies before the fleet, which is scheduled to anchor off Coronade Beach at 1 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Admiral Thomas has allowed 69 hours for the run up the coast, requiring an average of only nine knots an hour.

When the ships reached Sandiego they will have logged 13,569 knots since their departure from Hampton Roads on December 16th last.

Every coast city from Sandego to San Francisco is to see the fleet during the next four weeks, it having been arranged that at all points where no stop is scheduled, the ships will pass as close to shore as possible.

Preparations for the four days stay of the ships at Sandiego are complete. The city is gaily decorated with flags and patriotic bunting. In this city of 40,000 inhabitants, a fund of nearly $20,000 has been raised for the entertainment of the officers and men of the navy.

Seven indictments were returned by a Federal Grand Jury at Huntington, W. Va., last night under the statute against Peonage. Samuel Dixon, a Fayette county coal mine operator, is named in each indictment.

NAVY YARDS THAT ARE NO ACCOUNT

Congressman Lilley Proposes Another "Investigation" Into Affairs at Department.

MONEY IS THROWN AWAY

On Plants That Are Utterly Useless —Says the Property Should be Sold, Given Away or be Blown Up.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 11.—The investigation of the navy yards at Charleston, Port Royal, Mare Island, Portsmouth, N. H., New Orleans and Key West, by a commission appointed by the President with a view to their abandonment, was urged by Representative Lilley of Connecticut, in the House today. Mr. Lilley offered a joint resolution providing for the appointment of this commission and for improvements in other yards so as to eliminate the "waste of public moneys in the mintenance of the same."

The navy yards mentioned in his resolution were taken up separately and discussed by Mr. Lilley. The Mare Island yard, he said, has cost the people $17,000,000. It has a magnificent stone drydock which cost $1,175,000 "but the Secretary of the Navy states that this drydock will not permit the docking of a battleship. And not only is this true, but a battleship cannot get to the yard.

"Key West is a place," said Mr. Lilley, "that has cost us $1,238,038. It is six miles from the Straits; the low water depth in its channel is 26 feet and $101,000 has been spent there for dredging. At this yard in the fiscal year ending in 1907, $94,318 was expended for labor, and the value of their total product was but $7,126."

"Portsmouth, N. H., or Kittery, Me., is a plant that has cost us over $10,000,000." Continuing, Mr. Lilley said that last summer when he visited the Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard with the other members of the House Committee on Naval Affairs, aboard the Dolphin, the captain of the vessel told him it was not safe to take even so small a craft as the Dolphin up to the yard, because of the dangers of the swift current and narrow channel. The expensive dock has never docked a first-class battleship and yet $244,900 more was appropriated for this place the last session of Congress."

Concerning the navy yard at New Orleans, Mr. Lilley said that in 1907, $78,274 was spent by the government for labor and the total product was $1,046. "But the point that a business man would fail to comprehend, he continued, "is that $10,000 was appropriated at both sessions of the last Congress for new construction at New Orleans, for what advantage to the United States navy God only knows.

Charleston, he said, has but 25 feet of water in its channel. Yet Congress has appropriated $1,198,984 to build the magnificent drydock. "Not only is the channel too shallow but there is no berthing room for vessels and no ship of any description has ever been docked there. The total establishment has cost $3,394,300 and the dredging $108,000." At the session of Congress $287,000 was appropriated for this yard at Charleston. "The naval station at Port Royal," continued Mr. Lilley, "was removed to Charleston in 1900-1903, but as late as 1907, $14,724 was spent here for labor and although abandoned these expenditures will go on to the end of time unless the property is sold, given away, of blown up."

Mr. Lilley criticised Congress for not establishing a naval training station at Annapolis and moving the academy 70 miles below Annapolis, thus saving the $10,000,000 that is going to the Great Lakes. Annapolis, he said, for which Congress has seen fit to appropriate sums that will reach a total of $10,000,000 is sunk in the mud. "Battleships cannot reach the Academy and the United States coast and geodetic survey reports show that the upper Chesapeake is fast filling up."

Mr. Lilley's resolutions provide for the appointment of the commission of three members and appropriates the sum of $15,000 for the expenses of conducting the proposed investigation.

MRS. DUKE HELD.

Divorced Wife of Brodie L. Duke is Sent to Jail.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Chicago, April 11.—Mrs. Alice Webb-Duke, the divorced wife of Brodie L. Duke of the American Tobacco Company, who was arrested last night on the charge of passing forged checks was today held to await the action of the grand jury in bonds of $2,000. She was unable to give surety and was sent to the county jail.

Mrs. Duke did not deny that the signature to the checks was her own, but she said that because of sickness she was not responsible for her actions at the time the checks were passed. She also claimed that she was being persecuted by the American Tobacco Company. Through her attorney she offered to restore the full amount of the forged checks which totalled $75, but the court took no cognizance of the proposition.

Jay Gould, the National court tennis champion, yesterday successfully defended his title at New York, defeating Eustace H. Miles, of London, in four sets, 6-2; 6-4; 1-6; 6-3.

Ike S. Wright, a well known citizen of North Fort Worth, Texas, armed with a double-barrelled shot gun, ran amuck last night and as a result one man is dead and Chief of Police Montgomery and ex-Chief Horton are dying.

The primary elections of all political parties in Pennsylvania were held throughout the State yesterday. Each party elected delegates to its National and State convention and nominated for Congress and the Legislature.
